LEADER SAYS IT WOULD BE ABSURD FOR HIM TO THINK OF A SPECIAL SESSION NOW

By DICK HOENIG

Harrisburg (P)—Gov. Leader said today it would be "completely ridiculous" for him to think about calling a special session of the Legislature while the Assembly is still in session.

Commenting upon Republican observations that he may consider calling a special session in 1958 if the GOP-controlled Legislature does not pass his program Leader told his weekly news conference:

"I'm thinking about getting a job done here and now. Everything I'm pressing for can be done right now without any additional cost to the people."

Russians' Eyes Pop At Size of U. S. Air Force Globemaster

Moscow (P)—U. S. Ambassador Charles E. Bohlen left Moscow today on a plane so big it made the Russians gasp. He is flying to the United States en route to a new assignment as ambassador to the Philippines.

Moscow's diplomatic corps overflowed the airport building in a farewell tribute to Bohlen's acknowledged leadership of the Western diplomatic colony during his four years as ambassador.

The Soviet government sent only a protocol officer to see Bohlen off, despite a warm tribute paid the departing envoy last night by Communist party boss Nikita Khrushchev.

A giant U. S. Air Force C124 Globemaster—the nation's biggest troop transport plane—came from Germany to pick up Bohlen, his family, and eight other embassy officials. The plane can carry more than 200 troops.

It was the first trip of a Globemaster to the Soviet capital. The Russians had never seen a plane as big as the 90-ton, double-deck monster, and their eyes popped.

Just to bring its size home to the gaping onlookers, an embassy official backed a fully loaded truck up the ramp into the plane's belly.

Appointments By Chairman of Co. "Divergent" Dems

Robert Clark, recently chosen by unanimous vote to head the Warren County Democratic party organization divergents, today announced a partial group of the Democrats who will comprise his executive committee.

Listed are: Lewis L. Crippen, secretary; Duane E. Wilder, treasurer; Worth Hammond of Columbus, Joe Bevevino of Warren, Mrs. Victoria Pequinot of Tidouette.

Clark expects to announce two more members in the near future.

Chester Walker, acknowledged head of Warren County Democratic organization, expects to announce his executive committee shortly. (Walker is recognized by the state Democratic committee, Clark is recognized by a group of county committeemen and women who voted him in after signing a voucher attesting to dissatisfaction with Walker & Co.)

TO MOVE TRANSMITTER

Washington (P)—The Federal Communications Commission will hold a hearing May 20 on a protest against an order giving WKST-TV Channel 45, Youngstown, Ohio, permission to move its transmitter site from near New Castle, Pa., to Youngstown. The protest was entered by the Community Telecasting Company, (WXTV, Channel 73), Youngstown.

Community Holy Week Services To End With Friday Devotions

Community Holy Week services sponsored by Warren County Ministerial Association will culminate tomorrow in the traditional three-hour devotions from 12:00, noon, to 3:00 p. m. in First Methodist church, Market street at Second avenue.

Music will be in charge of George A. Johnson, soloists to include Mrs. William E. Yeager, James E. Johnson, Monroe Marshall, Mrs. John Tucker, Miss Frances Carlson, Francis Erickson, Miss Susan Lawson, Miss Susan Mead, and Miss Rosanna Oberg. The members of the First Methodist Choir will be assisted in the choir numbers by the guest soloists.

At 12:00, noon, the First Word, "Father, Forgive Them," will be presented by Clarence W. Baldwin, and a trio will sing, "Into The Woods My Master Went" (Lanier-Johnson).

The Second Word, "Today Shalt Thou Be With Me in Paradise," will be presented at 12:30 by Donald H. Spencer, with the solo, "Crucifixus" by Faure being sung. John Z. Andree will preach on the Third Word, "Woman, Behold Thy Son," at 12:45. O'Hara's solo, "Art Thou The Christ?" will be sung.

The Fourth Word, "My God! My God! Why Hast Thou Forsaken Me," will be preached upon at 1:20.

80-Year-Old Newsboy at Atlantic City Honored

Atlantic City, N. J., (P)—Eighty-year-old Eli Henry Taylor yesterday received a plaque from Acting Mayor John O'Donnell for 70 years as a "newsboy" on the boardwalk here. Taylor promptly hopped on his bicycle to sell more papers with his plaque propped up on the handlebars.

Study Authorized On Atomic Energy In State Economy

Harrisburg (P)—Gov. Leader said today a study will be made to determine when Pennsylvania can expect atomic energy to take a prominent place in the state's economy.

Leader told his weekly news conference that the study was authorized by the State Planning Board and will be conducted by the Mineral Economics Department at Pennsylvania State University at a cost of $15,000.

He said the study will determine when atomic energy will "take a vital place in the state's economy as a supplement and possible replacement for coal, natural gas and oil."

"Pennsylvania is the site of one of the world's pioneering applications of atomic power to peace time use at Shippingport, in Beaver County," Leader said.

The Duquesne Light Co. is completing work there on the nation's first commercial atomic power plant.

"Our state has also become a center for manufacturing of atomic equipment, primarily because of the foresight of the Westinghouse Electric Corp. in this field," Leader explained.

Two Tigers Stage a Jungle Fight Before 15,000 Spectators

New York (P)—Two tigers staged a jungle-style fight to the death before 15,000 spectators in the circus arena at Madison Square Garden yesterday.

A 7-year-old female royal bengal tiger named Ila—valued at nearly $5,000—was killed by a 4-year-old male named Rajah. The fight lasted three minutes.

The two first cuffed and snarled at each other during their act, in which they were part of a team of 12 tigers handled by trainer Trevor Bale.

Bale apparently managed to pacify them but at the end of the act, as the tigers were being herded into a runway to leave the ring, Rajah pounced on Ila and the mauling, clawing death battle ensued.

Roustabouts of the Ringling Brothers-Barnum & Bailey Circus, armed with steel bars, finally separated the two tigers and got them out of the arena. Ila bled to death while a veterinarian worked over her.

Rajah suffered only a few scratches and will stay with the act.

Truman To Address $100-Plate Dinner in Capital

Harrisburg (P)—Former President Truman will address the Democratic State Committee's annual $100-a-plate dinner in Harrisburg June 19, it was announced yesterday.

"We are delighted that President Truman has been able to fit our annual dinner into his busy schedule," State Chairman Joseph M. Barr said.

The dinner, normally given in the State Farm Show Building, will be at the Zombo Mosque, a Masonic temple, this year.

Missing Defendant Is On Floor in a Faint

Philadelphia (P)—Court Crier D. Michael Tankle was just about to ask the Criminal Court jury for the verdict in a drunken driving case when he noticed defendant William Dingdang was missing.

Turned out the suspense was just too much for Dingdang. He'd fainted in a chair behind the jury box. He was taken to a hospital, where his condition was reported good.

The verdict: innocent.

DENIAL ISSUED BY SCRANTON UNION LEADER

Washington (P)—John Durkin, a power in the Scranton, Pa., Teamsters Union, today branded as false testimony linking him with violence.

He protested against being questioned now before the Senate Rackets Investigating Committee, contending it might prejudice his trial on pending federal charges of taking "kickbacks" and a new trial on charges of conspiracy in the dynamiting of a home.

But the graying, 50-year-old witness, invoked no Fifth Amendment plea. He had invoked the amendment's protection against self-incrimination yesterday in refusing to tell the committee his occupation—the only question asked him then.

But today, with his lawyer beside him, Durkin answered the question and challenged the truthfulness of prior accusing witnesses.

He identified himself as secretary-treasurer and business agent of the Teamsters Union Local 229, vice president of the Pennsylvania Federation of Labor and financial secretary of the Central Labor Union in Scranton.

Under questioning by Sen. McClellan (D-Ark), the committee chairman, and Chief Counsel Robert F. Kennedy, Durkin denied he ever made threatening telephone calls to Arnold Schiavi, Italian bread and pizza baker in Scranton, as Schiavi had testified.

He also denied that he had supplied a stink bomb and ordered it thrown through Schiavi's bakery window, as alleged by Paul Bradshaw, self-styled former strong arm man for the union.

The lawyer appearing with Durkin was Joseph Brennan of Scranton. Because Brennan could not be present yesterday, the committee deferred until today the questioning of the three business agents of the Teamsters local—Durkin, Robert Malloy and Joseph McHugh.

Chairman McClellan (D-Ark) of the special Senate committee said this may be the last day of the Scranton phase of the committee's search for evidence of racketeering and other wrongdoing in the labor-management field.

Canadian Minister Report On Norman Proved Unfounded

Ottawa (P)—Foreign Minister Lester Pearson said last night a Canadian secret agent's report which later proved to be unfounded was used by a U. S. Senate subcommittee in charging Canadian diplomat Herbert Norman with having been a Communist.

Pearson said the Royal Canadian Mounted Police in October, 1950, forwarded to U. S. security agencies a report from a secret agent that Norman was a member of the Canadian Communist party in 1940.

The foreign minister said this "no doubt" was the basis of the statement by Robert Morris, counsel of the U. S. Senate Internal Security subcommittee, last month that "Norman was identified in February, 1940, as a member of the Communist party."

Norman's suicide in Cairo April 4, after publication of Morris' remarks to the Senate subcommittee touched off a storm of criticism in Canada of the Senate group.

TRAILER TRAGEDY

Indianapolis, Ind., (P)—A trailer-truck loaded with paint and motor oil crashed into a bridge six miles west of Logansport on U. S. Route 24 today and killed the driver, Edward Giese, of Erie, Pa. State police said Giese apparently fell asleep at the wheel.

Ike Plans Golf-Work Vacation in Florida

Washington, (P)—President Eisenhower took off at 11:22 a. m. EST today for a golf-work vacation at Augusta, Ga. Accompanied by Mrs. Eisenhower, the President expected to spend about 10 days at his cottage on the Augusta National Golf Course.

Last of Community Holy Week Services Largely Attended

Community noon-day Holy Week services were concluded today, with 154 persons gathered in the sanctuary of First Baptist church to hear the Rt. Rev. William C. Tilden, D. D., Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Erie, speak on the subject, "The Way of Prayer."

The speaker read from the Gospel of Mark 14:32-39, which relates the prayer experience of Jesus in the Garden of Gethsemane on the night of His betrayal and arrest.

He said, "The way of prayer catches all of our devotional life, and made three suggestions for prayer life: (1) Let us strive for maturity in our prayer life. (2) Let us remember that nothing is impossible with God. (3) Let us remember that God will answer our prayers if we will yield to his will."

In developing his suggestions for a prayer life, the speaker said, "We cannot be mature in our prayer life without persistence. Explore all levels of prayer life. . . . Most of us live on a very low level of prayer." He spoke of four levels of prayer life in an ascending order: Petition, confession, thanksgiving and communion with God.

He answered his question, "How" (Turn to Page Twenty)

Allegheny County Teachers Favor Old-Fashioned Paddling

Pittsburgh, (P)—Teachers in Allegheny County have concluded that the way to discipline unruly pupils is to paddle them.

The recommendations were released today by the County School Board. The report summarizes a school discipline study made by 500 teachers.

If paddling fails, the teachers said, expulsion or transfer to a reform school should be the next step.

Dr. A. H. Addleman, board supervisor, said the recommendations are the "prevailing thoughts" of the teachers and not their unanimous opinion.

The report said "the poor home" is responsible for most school discipline problems and added that "constructive action should be taken by some agency to improve extreme problem homes."

The teachers had a word for their colleagues too.

"The professional personnel of the school should work constantly to establish a program of prevention in discipline problems rather than extensive correction."

Future Embargo on Third Class Mail Is Opposed

Washington (P)—A trade group says it plans to push a court fight aimed at preventing any further embargo on third-class mail.

The Associated Third Class Mail Users, Inc., and Spencer Gifts, Inc., Atlantic City, N. J., announced yesterday they were taking this step even though such an embargo, originally scheduled as an economy move, now has been canceled. The Spencer firm, operating in Atlantic City, N. J., as a big user of third-class mail, joined in the suit as complainant.

TV Winner and His Bride

Charles Van Doren, who turned down hundreds of proposals while winning fame and fortune on a television quiz show, is shown with Geraldine Ann Bernstein, 22, whom he married in St. Thomas, Virgin Islands. The ceremony was performed by a police judge. The marriage will probably save the 31-year-old Columbia University instructor $20,000 in income tax on the $129,000 he won. They met when he hired her to help answer fan mail. (NEA Telephoto)

Edgar at White House Dinner With Dwight and Milton Gets Advice On Dealing With Press

Washington (P)—Edgar Eisenhower says "a breach in our family is the last thing that could ever develop."

Edgar, the President's older brother, also said last night: "I want to make it very plain there are no differences between my brothers and me. We can differ on a friendly basis and no rancor is involved."

He caused quite a stir earlier this week when he was quoted as criticizing the size of the President's budget.

When the President was asked yesterday about this and about reports that Edgar was "disturbed about the liberal influence of Milton and Sherman Adams," he told his news conference good humoredly: "Edgar has been criticizing me since I was 5 years old."

Edgar Eisenhower, 68, is 22 months older than the President. Milton Eisenhower, another brother of the President, is head of Johns Hopkins University and sometimes has been consulted on various matters by the chief executive. Sherman Adams is Eisenhower's top aide.

Edgar, a Tacoma, Wash., attorney, attended a White House stag dinner last night, along with brother Milton and a number of other guests of the President.

Later, he told an interviewer that "Dwight" and Milton kiddingly gave me some advice about dealing with the press."

Edgar said the only mention of the budget during the evening came at a family gathering before the dinner when "Dwight made a remark that all expenses have gone up."

"He asked me if the expenses in my office were the same as last year," Edgar said. "I answered I couldn't compare them because I'm moving the office."

When he was asked by a newsman if he had anything more to say about the administration's budget, Edgar replied: "I want to forget the whole thing as fast as I can."

But he stressed that he hasn't changed his opinion—"not a bit."

Edgar said he and his wife planned to leave for home today.

Milton Eisenhower has not commented publicly on Edgar's statements, telling newsmen: "Just say you couldn't find me to ask that question."

Chairman Lewis L. Strauss of the Atomic Energy Commission said this was the fifth in a series since April 3. Just last Saturday, he had announced that four tests had been conducted in the previous 10 days.

Strauss said today that the latest explosion was "at a site in central Asia previously used for such operations."

"The weapon tested in the most recent explosion," the announcement said, "was one of the largest thus far in the current Soviet series."

The rig overturned about three miles offshore in 28 feet of water. None of the survivors could give a reason for the capsizing, although workmen said some pipe aboard may have shifted and caused it to topple over.

Jaycees Request Contributions To the Youth Ambassador Fund

A request for all organizations which plan to contribute to Community Youth Ambassador Fund to do so as soon as possible, was brought forth at a regular Junior Chamber of Commerce meeting last evening.

The committee reported that only $750 of the necessary $1,000 had been contributed to date. Committee members expressed a desire to wrap up certain obligations before deadline and requested prospective donors to act when convenient.

Thanks were also forwarded to organizations already contributing.

OMINOUS SIGN

CHANGES IN LAWS NEEDED HE DECLARES

By DOUGLAS N. CORNELL

Washington (P)—President Eisenhower spelled out for Congress today how it can cut appropriations by $1,858,000,000—but he still said there can be no "substantial reduction" in actual spending unless Congress revises or repeals some laws.

In a letter to the House Speaker Rayburn, the President listed half a dozen places for possible economies.

These, the White House said, might bring about a slash of $600 million to $800 million in spending in the fiscal year starting July 1.

"Given continuation of healthy economic growth and of fixed expenditure control, these figures combined will begin to lay a firm fiscal foundation for the time when we can be sufficiently assured that our income will so exceed our expenses as to justify a reasonable tax cut for every taxpayer while we continue to reduce the government's debt," he said.

Eisenhower, however, laid out no timetable for a possible tax reduction.

In addition to suggesting places for whacking appropriations, the President proposed that Congress take steps to improve the budget situation through a 10-point legislative program. Many of the points, such as boosting postal (Turn to Page Seven)

Conewango Officer Sounds Warning to Drivers

Residents of Conewango Township, particularly in the North Warren area, who persist in parking violations are about to feel the bite.

Conewango Township Police Officer Clayton Rhoades said this morning that appearance of this announcement would signal the start of fines for those disregarding parking regulations.

Officers Rhoades pointed out that cars have parked repeatedly in front of North Warren Volunteer Fire Department, jammed streets to the extent where an ambulance had to be rerouted, and generally endangered life and limb by parking too close to fire hydrants, intersections and in bus stopping zones.

Warnings have been issued for the past year and a half, said Rhoades, and now infractions will be filed against offenders of the Commonwealth's vehicular code. This includes operators who park on the wrong side of the street and in front of driveways.

Another movement is underway to enforce the littering laws as dozens of persons still show complete disregard for property rights of others.

Russia Is Reported To Have Exploded Largest Test Yet

Washington (P)—The government said today that Russia exploded on Tuesday a nuclear weapon which was "one of the largest thus far in the current Soviet series."

Chairman Lewis L. Strauss of the Atomic Energy Commission said this was the fifth in a series since April 3. Just last Saturday, he had announced that four tests had been conducted in the previous 10 days.

Strauss said today that the latest explosion was "at a site in central Asia previously used for such operations."

"The weapon tested in the most recent explosion," the announcement said, "was one of the largest thus far in the current Soviet series."

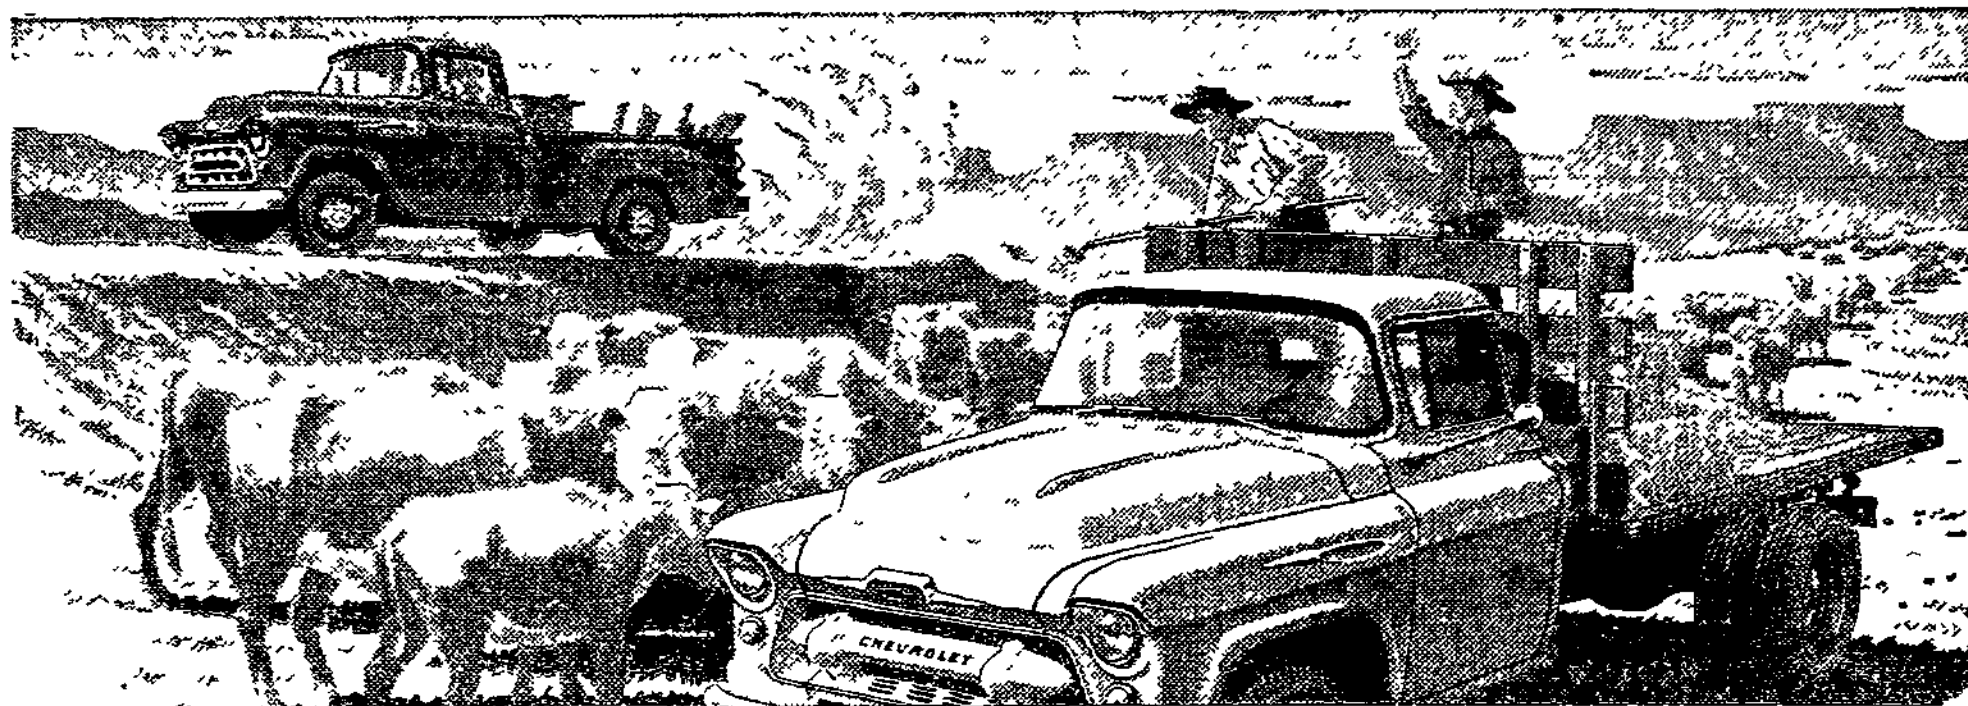

Oil Drilling Barge Holds Fate of Missing Crewmen

New Orleans, (P)—An overturned oil drilling barge concealed the fate of nine missing crewmen today.

The barge, "Golden Meadow No. 7," capsized yesterday in the Gulf of Mexico while under tow near the mouth of the Mississippi River. Rescuers picked up 6 members of the 15-man crew.

None of the survivors could give a reason for the capsizing, although workmen said some pipe aboard may have shifted and caused it to topple over.

At the meeting Monday evening of the Firemen's Auxiliary, Lena Peterson and Ruby Ransom were elected delegates to the North-western Auxiliary meeting at Venango, April 24. Committee in charge of the meeting was Charlotte Carlett and Martha Blakeslee. The next meeting will feature a film and a speaker on cancer. Mr. and Mrs. John Quinn and infant son, John David, are arriving today to spend Easter with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wade Ransom.

Youngville Thincads Third at Smethport

Youngville thincads ran a rather close race yesterday, had to be content with third place in a triangular meet at Smethport with Port Allegheny providing the balance of competition.

Smethport scored 56 1/3, Port Allegheny 36 1/3, Youngville 31 1/3.

Coach Richard Praetzel reported he took 36 boys by bus along for the meet. Track was pretty slow and no spectacular times were chalked up by any winners.

Youngville's next match will be at Port Allegheny next Tuesday.

He was president of the Indiana County group in 1950.

OFF-STREET PARKING

Holding steadfast to its position in the recent controversy with the City Parking Authority, Bradford City Council Monday took action toward the establishment on its own of a municipal off-street parking lot in lower Main street. During its session, Council authorized City Solicitor Francis M. Nash to negotiate a lease with the Kendall Refining Co., owner of one of two tracts the city wants to use for parking. The other is the adjacent Pennsylvania Railroad property along the south side of Main street, near Tuna Creek. It was explained that by combining the two, space for parking about 100 cars would be available in the section where the parking authority had proposed buying the General Garage Co. property for the same purpose.

PRINCIPAL RESIGNS

Delmar Montgomery, supervising principal of the Pleasantville Joint School, has resigned effective June 30 to accept a position as principal of a high school in Titusville, Fla., starting next fall. Mr. Montgomery's resignation was accepted by the Pleasantville Joint School Board at its last meeting, but was announced only yesterday. He said he plans to move to Florida sometime in July. His reason for moving to Florida is because his daughter, Deleva, plans to attend the University of Florida at Gainesville, where Mr. Montgomery had done graduate work. This school year climaxes 25 years of teaching in Pennsylvania elementary and secondary schools for Mr. Montgomery. He served for two years as supervising principal of PHS. Before that, he served 14 years as an elementary school principal of PHS. Before that, he served 14 years as an elementary school principal in the Rouseville-Complanter school. Prior to that, he taught in Worth, Pine and Springfield townships, all in Mercer County.

GOP "No New Taxes" Program Is Greatest Accomplishment Of 1957 Legislative Session

By BOB HOLTON
Harrisburg, (AP) — Putting the Republican "no new taxes" revenue program on the statute books stood out today as the biggest accomplishment of the 1957 Legislature during its 3½-month session.

With the touchy tax problem out of the way—if it doesn't pop up again—Republican leaders in both House and Senate have started talking about winding up around June 1.

But even adjournment stirred up controversy between Democratic Gov. Leader and the GOP controlled Legislature.

The Governor objects vigorously to the Legislature adjourning without enacting the administration program—some 200 bills covering many phases of state activity.

He fears that will be the case and has called a bipartisan conference of legislative leaders for next Wednesday to see what can be done. He called it a "good government showdown."

This is the present status of measures in the Legislature this session:

Bills introduced: House 1,163; Senate 570; total 1,733.

Bills passed: House 133; Senate 108; total 241.

Bills passed by both branches and sent to the governor, 45.

Bills signed 39; enacted without signature 1—sales tax; vetoed 3; bills on governor's desk 2; total 45.

The Republican "no-new-taxes" revenue program renewed a group of existing taxes. Topped by the 3 per cent sales tax which never went into effect was dropped.

Leader, objecting to amendments giving exemptions to manufacturers, utilities and shipyards, permitted the sales tax bill to become law without his signature.

The governor said the bill gave "inexcusable preferences to certain favored groups." Republicans contended the intent of the original 1956 sales tax law was to exempt those groups.

The major piece of work facing the lawmakers now is balancing the governor's proposed 2.3 million dollar budget for the 1957-59 biennium.

Republican lawmakers also are working on further amendments to the Sales Tax Law, many of which are being proposed by the State Justice Department.

Forest Homemakers Day To Be Held At Tionesta April 24

Mrs. Marguerite Duvall, child development and family life specialist from Pennsylvania State University, will lead a panel discussion on happiness at the Forest County Homemakers Day, Wednesday, April 24, at the Presbyterian Church in Tionesta.

Another program highlight will be a talk by Attorney F. Earle Magee of Oil City on the duties of elected officials.

Other features include exhibits, a washing well, door prize, a smorgasbord luncheon and a hat contest. Each homemaker is asked to bring either an edible or out-of-this-world or lovely hat. The Stewart Run group will present a skit and a Tionesta group will furnish a musical selection.

All Homemakers of Forest County are invited to Homemakers Day April 24 from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m. Each homemaker is request-

MR. GAVIN'S SUCCESS

Says the Titusville Herald: A week ago we commented on the action of the House in Washington in cutting 50,000,000 from Welfare Department funds which had been earmarked for the fight against stream pollution. What we had read gave us the idea that the slash had actually taken place, but it had passed only on a voice vote.

Now it appears that Congressman Leon H. Gavin of Oil City was successful in defeating the amendment which would have knocked out the water pollution control funds. It was beaten 231-to-185 on a rollcall vote.

This result was a "victory for all conservationists," as hailed by the director of the National Wildlife Federation in a letter congratulating the congressman.

"You may regard that successful fight as a personal victory," wrote the vice president of the Wildlife Management Institute to Mr. Gavin.

We wish to add our congratulations to all that the congressman has been receiving.

The Herald has always supported every effort to clean up our streams and rivers. We differ with Mr. Gavin only in method. State and local groups can handle the problem, we thought. Mr. Gavin prefers to support the campaign on the national level. Judging from his recent success, he has convinced many influential people that his way is best.

"OPERATION EASTER CARLIFT"

From Clifford Loney, governor of Warren Lodge No. 109, L. O. O. M., additional information is received about the "Operation Easter Carlift" planned Sunday morning by all Moose lodges in the United States, mentioned elsewhere on this page Tuesday.

He says that more than 1,800 Moose lodges, including Warren, will cooperate in this fourth annual nationwide project, inaugurated by the National Moose Civic Affairs Department.

Warren Lodge has plans completed to cooperate locally. Mr. Loney reminds that early church goers should call the club by midnight Saturday. Persons planning to attend later services may call early Sunday morning. Automobiles will be made available to all persons desiring transportation to and from church, and it is anticipated that an estimated 10,000 automobiles will be placed at the disposal of people throughout the nation where Moose lodges are located.

Telephones at the Moose club are 1718 and 248.

The long-range forecast for the Easter period is anything but bright. As predicted by the Associated Press Weatherman, it will be somewhat cooler over the weekend with occasional showers Friday and Monday! Oh, well, he's been wrong before!

With some of the most important patriotic holidays coming up during the next three months, there should be no doubt about the success of the latest project of the Warren Jaycees—the sale of the American Flag Kits. Plan now to fly the colors Memorial Day, Flag Day and the Fourth of July!

The unexpected passing of Mrs. Homer Bowersox, 13 Glenwood street, who was laid to rest today, removes one of the most beloved women of the east side. Her friendly greeting will be missed by neighbors and friends and especially in the First Methodist church and its affiliated women's organizations.

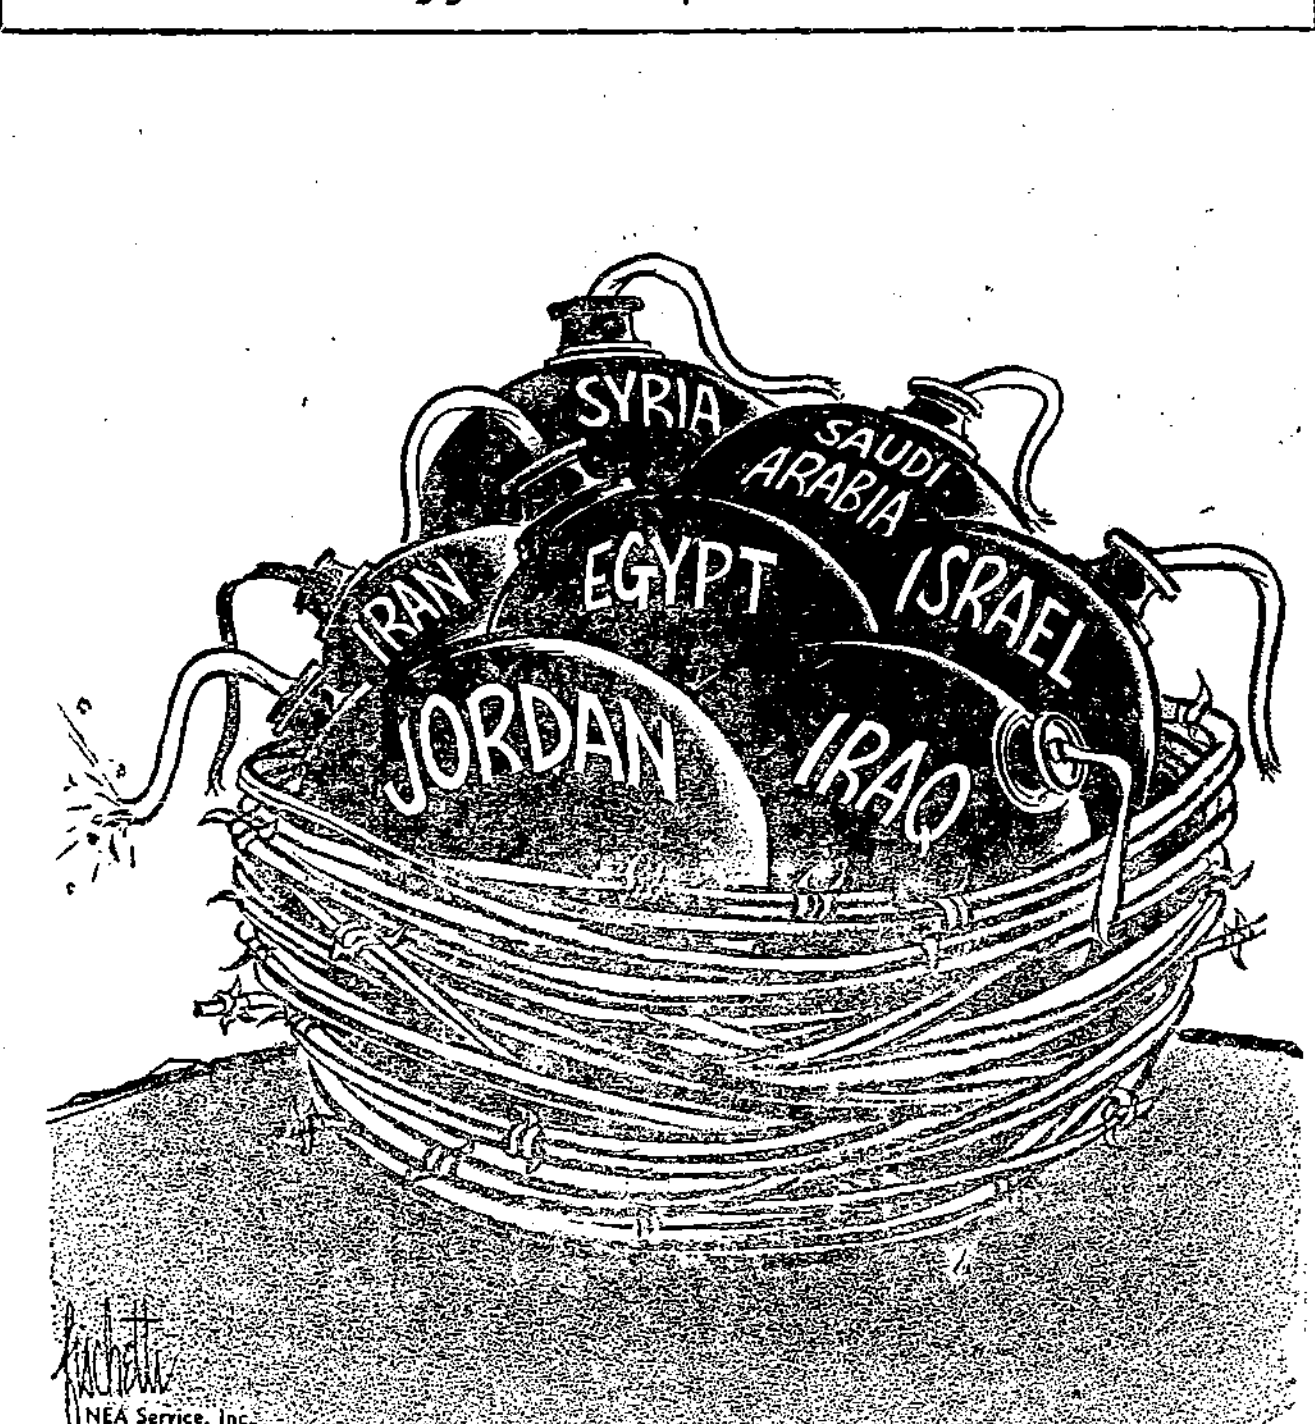

Now that the children are having a few days vacation over the Easter weekend it behooves motorists to exercise just a little more caution in driving over the streets of the borough and rural highways. Help keep the area free from tragedy over the holiday.

Here and There

Here's another of those nostalgic editorials from the editorial column of the New York Times, printed under the headline "Why".

"There's still time, before daylight saving, to ponder a few questions. To wonder, for instance, why we ever thought a blue jay was a brightly colored fellow back in January. See a jay now just after a bluebird has been around and the jay looks drab and faded. It isn't merely a matter of contrast, either. A blue jay against a hillside briefly white with April snow still looks faded.

Why does the pale green of daisy shoots seem to be so vigorously vernal? Actually, it is not half as green as new grass, but it proclaims April. So does the pale green of violet leaves thrusting up through the leaf mold. Probably the warmest green of all is in the fresh shoots of chives in the garden. Why do they have so much more flavor than they had last fall? Is it the pent-up flavor of a winter of waiting?

What happens to a fly that is hatched in a snow flurry? An outdoor fly, that is. House flies just buzz as usual. Early bees appreciate the crocuses, but why don't they wait for more generous fare?

And early wasps seem to appear out of innate cantankerousness. Early woodchucks wake up because they run out of fuel, and they get their teeth and appetites nicely whetted just in time for the first fruits of the garden. It's a foolish question when a gardener asks why woodchucks wake up at all, but gardeners always ask it.

Why do female ducks do all the quacking? What does a robin think about when he stands and thinks between times? Or is he listening for a worm? Where does a wren get all its energy? Why doesn't April settle down and act like April? Why?

The Weekly Newsletter printed by the Pennsylvania Game Commission says commission recently acquired several live specimens of the raven. The bird is black like the crow but much larger in size. It has a heavier beak and a more raucous call than the distinctive "caw" of the crow. Conservation-wise there is another difference: In Pennsylvania the raven is protected because it is a scavenger, and kills a great number of rodents and injurious insects; whereas the crow is unprotected because of its habit of raiding grain fields and destroying small game species and their nests.

Hunters often take the young crows from their nests in spring. Later the captive birds are used as decoys to lure other crows within shotgun range. Persons should be careful to obtain their birds from crowd nests, which are of twig-and-mud construction and found in trees. The raven builds a similar-looking nest of small branches and three or four times the size of that of the crow, lining it with fine plant material. Rocky ledges are usually used as nesting sites, however tall trees may also be selected.

The raven has a number of distinctions. Among others, it is mentioned several times in the Bible, and every school child is familiar with Edgar Allen Poe's poem on the bird.

Hunters are cautioned to be careful not to shoot or take the scarce, protected raven.

It was 182 years ago that Paul Revere made his famous heroic ride. In the night of April 18-19, 1775, the American Revolutionary patriot, at the request of our own Joseph Warren, rode to Lexington to warn Hancock and Samuel Adams of the approach of British troops. Passing on to warn the patriots at Concord, he was arrested by the British, but was released the next day, history says. It was this feat that was immortalized in Longfellow's poem. He also participated in the Boston tea party and was otherwise very active in the movement against England.

Washington Letter

BY PETER EDSON, NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—No Republican senators showed up for a Banking and Currency subcommittee hearing on aid for depressed areas. The result was that Democratic Sens. Paul Douglas of Illinois and Joe Clark of Pennsylvania had a merry romp over the administration's program.

They picked out all kinds of inconsistencies in a statement which Undersecretary of Agriculture True D. Morse presented.

Morse admitted there were a million and a half farm families with incomes of less than $1,000 a year. This, he said, was about six million people. It's a fourth of America's rural population.

In the first part of his statement, Undersecretary Morse said that incomes of these farm families should be increased. Their credit needs would have to be taken care of. Industries would have to be brought into rural areas to provide part-time employment. Vocational training should be made available. Health and nutritional standards should be improved.

DEPARTMENT of Agriculture now has pilot programs in 57 of these depressed agricultural communities in 24 states, to find out how their problems can be met.

Until local communities and private capital gain more experience in dealing with these depressed areas, Undersecretary Morse said he was not in favor of providing them with more direct federal assistance.

Morse thought the Eisenhower administration's bill, introduced by Sen. Edward Martin (R-Pa.) would be adequate to deal with the situation.

This would authorize 50 million dollars' worth of loans to city areas with high unemployment, plus a million and a half dollars' worth of grants to help cities plan unemployment relief projects. There is no aid for depressed farm areas in the Martin bill.

Senator Clark observed here that this was completely inconsistent with the needs of the million and a half farm families with low income, which Morse had given in the beginning.

AFTER a minor hassle over this, Morse went on reading his statement until he came to a place where it said:

"The need for public funds in the promotion of new industries is often as great in distressed rural areas as in urban areas. Leadership in rural areas may question whether areas of severe underemployment in farming communities should not be equally eligible for assistance."

Senator Douglas picked this up as "compounding the inconsistency."

First Morse had said he was not recommending direct aid to distressed farmers. Now he was saying that rural areas should be equally eligible for assistance with urban areas.

Morse had to fall back on a letter from the Budget Bureau. It said that "grants for low-income rural areas" were not recommended because "there is strong doubt whether most rural areas could adequately meet the self-help qualifications."

Senator Douglas immediately jumped on this as being still more inconsistent with what Morse had said before.

IN Senator Douglas' own bill for relief of depressed areas, 100 million dollars' worth of loans would be provided for both urban and rural aid, and the federal government could supply up to 75 per cent of the funds needed. In the Republican, Martin bill, only 25 per cent of any costs could be federal aid.

"Are you opposed to rural loans?" Douglas asked.

Morse replied that he'd first like to see how the local pilot programs worked out.

SOCIETY

Y-Teens Have Busy Activity Schedule

All members of the High School Girls' Club are asked to be in attendance at their next meeting Monday, April 29th, for election of officers. This will be a secret ballot and results of the voting will not be known until the Y-teens' annual mother-daughter banquet May 13th.

A very important meeting will take place at 8:00, following the election of officers, for all girls expecting to attend Y-Teen Camp in June. At this meeting, camp plans will be discussed with the group. The 8:00 meeting is open to all girls from Beaty Junior High and High School who hope to attend camp and the girls must be accompanied by their mothers. All interested persons are urged to be present and attendance of the mothers is required.

Several High School Y-Teen Club members, under the chairmanship of Sandy E. Johnson and Cynthia Park, are busy at work on their Easter party for 13 underprivileged children. Due to the tremendous success of the event last year, the girls are going to attempt a similar party. A good time is promised to the children who will be present. Each will be presented with Easter baskets, candy eggs and toys. Games will be played and prizes will be given, followed by refreshments for all.

ATTENDS CONCERT

Members of the Akeley Adult Fellowship went as a group to attend the Community Choir concert presented Palm Sunday evening at Eisenhower High School.

The group then returned to the church for a business session and refreshments. Members have planned to sponsor a pancake supper in the Grange Hall May 11.

REBEKAH LODGE

Lady Warren Rebekah Lodge members will have a tureen supper at 6:00 p. m. Friday, followed by the regular meeting at 8:00.

TODAY is pay day for all who have classified ads.

Holding their monthly meeting Monday evening in the Jaycee Room at the YMCA, Auxiliary members had as guests several members of the Auxiliary-sponsored Golden Age Society.

Representatives of the oldsters' group in attendance were Dr. C. J. Frantz, chairman of the board of directors; Carl Rogers, president; Mrs. Fred Grosch, secretary, and Mrs. Ralph Cousins.

Participating in the musical program were Mrs. V. W. Kirberger and Emil Johnson, who presented harmonica solos, accompanied by Mrs. Esper Mason, who also gave several piano solos. Community singing followed.

At the business session, it was announced a check will be presented to the recreation board for the swimming pool fund. Plans were discussed for raising funds for the Youth Canteen renovation fund. Letters of appreciation were received concerning the Auxiliary's contributions to the YMCA, Community Ambassador Fund, and Fourth of July Celebration. Plans for a tureen dinner at next month's meeting were discussed.

The following were elected to the board of directors: Arlene Jones, Penny Krespan, Betty Owens, Mary Schorman and Bernice Stachowiak.

Refreshments were served by Dorothy Smith, Anita Kettis and Bernice Stachowiak, chairman.

Remaining Young Is an 'Inside Job' as Well

THE woman who tries to stay young by spending half her life in beauty salons and reducing parlors and shopping for clothes is just wasting her time.

But there are ways for a woman to stay young, if she works from the inside instead of the outside.

She stays young as long as she— Keeps a tolerant attitude towards the peculiarities of other people, instead of being outraged by anyone whose ideas, habits and opinions are different from her own.

Isn't afraid to try something new or challenging. The minute she starts telling herself, "I couldn't possibly do that," she is letting herself grow old.

Is willing to let younger people find things out for themselves, instead of being too free with advice.

Keeps broadening her interests instead of narrowing them.

Is genuinely interested in meeting new people and hearing new ideas.

Refuses to let her life follow a set pattern—this on Monday, that on Tuesday, etc., on through the weeks, months and years.

REMEMBERS SHE'S IMPERFECT

DOESN'T dwell on gloomy, sad and discouraging topics but prefers happier talk.

Makes friends with young people and tries to understand them, always being willing to try to see their point of view.

Never forgets that she isn't perfect herself and that in her lifetime she has made many mistakes.

Is always looking forward to tomorrow, instead of dreading what tomorrow might bring.

Jefferson Unit Elects Officers; Hears Panel

The April meeting of Jefferson PTA was opened by President James Francis, with devotions conducted by the Rev. C. W. Baldwin. Attendance awards were given to Miss Knapp's third grade and Miss Gaghan's second grade.

Reporting for the nominating committee, Mrs. Willis Lundahl presented the following slate of officers for the coming year: President Jack Lutz, vice president Mrs. Myer Berenfeld; second vice president Miss Marguerite Fleming; secretary, Mrs. A. Ornel; treasurer, Bernard Bloom.

Members voted to allot $40 for entertainment of the School Safety Patrol; it was announced the annual ice cream social will be held in May, with Mrs. Dan Dodge and Mrs. Charles Frantz as co-chairmen.

Mr. Francis announced the PTA-sponsored Penn State Blue Band Concert will be held May 1, also that tickets at $1 each may be obtained from any of the following: Mr. Francis, Mrs. Hugh Mohney, Willis Lundahl or Mrs. Henry Wyman, also from Principal David Olson at the school office.

Mrs. John Fanardis, program chairman, presented Principal Olson and the teaching staff in a very interesting panel discussion of the topic "What Do Teachers Expect of Parents?"

Following this very instructive period refreshments were served by third grade mothers under the chairmanship of Mrs. Hans Link.

YWCA Board Planning Open House Next Week

Members of the YWCA board of directors attended the Y-Teens' Easter Chapel Service prior to holding their April business session.

Committee reports were presented and announcement was made that next week is National YWCA Week, with a special open house sponsored by the world fellowship committee.

The affair will be held Tuesday evening in the activities building, starting at 7:30 p. m., and all in the community are invited to visit the YWCA, see its facilities and the program it offers to women and girls of Warren.

It was also stated another smorgasbord has been planned May 11 by the cafeteria committee, with proceeds used for redecoration of the cafeteria.

Mrs. Milton Witz was elected alternate delegate to attend the YWCA Eastern Regional Conference May 17-19 in Atlantic City with the executive director, Mary Belle Bairstow.

Varied Activities in Prospect for Auxiliary

The Ladies' Auxiliary of Pleasant Volunteer Fire Department held its April meeting in the fire hall Tuesday evening with Mary Holcomb, second vice president, conducting the session and Chaplain Evelyn Hannold leading devotions and bag salute.

There were 22 members present to answer roll call. Following routine reports, special committee reports were acted upon. Samples displayed by the purchasing committee for curtains for the hall were decided upon, aprons for the kitchen and dining room workers were ordered.

Mrs. Jeanette Fredenick reported a successful Red Cross drive in the township; kitchen facility inspection by the health officer was reported with only a few minor corrections necessary in order to apply for license.

Private dinners are planned for April 27, with Jo Mikan and Luella Check as co-chairmen, and May 20, with no committee named.

The next teen-age dance to be sponsored by the group will be held April 26, with Evelyn Hannold and Myrtle Confer as co-chairmen; another in May will be supervised by Norma Peterson and Mary Pierce.

An Auxiliary and Firemen's dance is scheduled for May 4; announcement was made of the radio training session to be held in the hall at 7:30 p. m. next Monday. Auxiliary members were urged to join the fire ladders in learning proper use and care of the radio equipment.

The committee serving refreshments during the social hour were Lillian Huckabone, Mildred Nollinger and Betty Pollock.

TICKET REMINDER

FOR SCOUT BENEFIT

Girl Scouts of Troops 4 and 15 are looking forward eagerly to their proposed trip to "Rockwood", National Girl Scout Camp near Bethesda, Md., in late July, and ask that all their friends support their play project by which they are endeavoring to raise funds. They will travel by bus, if the trip comes off as hoped for, and will be near enough to Washington to take in its special sights.

The play, scheduled for presentation at Beaty Junior High School auditorium at 8:00 p. m. Saturday, April 27, will be Mollere's long-popular "The Would-Be Gentleman", being staged by the Collegiate Players from Edinboro State Teachers' College. A call to 2999-J or 561 will bring a ticket seller to the door.

Put Baby in Focus With Good Home Snapshots

BY KAY SHERWOOD
NEA Staff Writer

GOOD intentions, a camera in the closet, and film and flashbulbs in the drawer are not enough to answer the friendly plea written by almost every relative to proud, new parents: "Please send me a picture of the baby." Excuses that you don't have time to take pictures sound as hollow to Grandma as they do to you.

Nor is the problem solved with a photo that pictures the living room carpet and curtains more clearly than it does the tiny rite propped in the corner of the sofa.

Prompted by the upcoming National Baby Week (April 28-May 4) when our smallest citizens deserve special recognition, I'm turning up my determination to send good, clear, recent snapshots of the baby to all the family.

Profiting from mistakes in the past and heeding the tips of professional photographers, I'll bear in mind these pointers:

SHOOT AS CLOSE AS YOU CAN If a camera won't focus as close to the subject as necessary, invest in a close-up lens. When taking close-ups indoors with flash, use a flashguard.

Include something in the picture to show comparative size—a tablespoon in a tiny fist or a grownup's hand. But don't overwhelm baby with an outlandish or huge stuffed toy. If you're going to try color shots, pick a toy that's pastel or subdued in color to avoid distracting the eye from the main subject.

Keep dress and background simple. This doesn't mean picture-ing His Nibs in a white kimono on a white blanket. But it is wise to use plain pastels, especially for color pictures, and to provide some contrast in the background. Place a medium-toned blanket under him or hold him up near a medium-toned wall.

If Mama or Grandma will be holding the baby on her lap, make sure her dress is simple, solid-colored and provides some contrast. Or let Dad hold him—his business suit is just about right for a background that won't overpower the baby. This is important whether the picture is black and white or in color.

When possible, leave tiny arms and legs uncovered so fond relatives can admire their miniature perfection.

NATURALLY YOU'LL try to capture your young subject at a favorable moment. After the baby is fed or when he first wakes up are moments that are likely to produce contented smiles.

If your equipment is ready and his mood is favorable, take several pictures so you'll have a good selection. Very young babies, I've learned, may look cross-eyed in one picture or yawn at the wrong time. I try to photograph as rapidly as possible a very young baby. His mood is so subject to change.

HUDLOW CHURCH HAS ANNIVERSARY
First Mission church in Ludlow recently observed its 60th anniversary with a fine program and upper, a capacity audience attending.

A commemorative service was given by the Rev. Carl Fredeen, superintendent of the Home for the Aged at Frewsburg, and the Rev. Paul Peterson, of Bethlehem Covenant church of Warren, to remind the congregation of the splendid history of the parish started March 5, 1897, with the Rev. A. W. Franklin as its first pastor.

Also participating in the anniversary were the Rev. Richard Peterson, current pastor, and the Rev. Carl F. Eliason, Ludlow and Sheffield Lutheran minister. Special music was by Ruby Holt, Jamestown, and Norma Bergquist, Ludlow. Flowers were the gift of August W. Anderson.

PASTORS REMEMBER HOSPITAL PATIENTS
It is learned through the Warren State Hospital publication, The Junior Occasional, that the three Protestant chaplains, the Revs. G. Forrest Sparks, Vincent Rothwell and Francis Fehlmann, are administering Communion today to all patients who have expressed such desire. There was one large gathering in the chapel, others at geriatrics and the infirmary.

Rev. Sparks, pastor of First Baptist church, will be in charge of the Protestant Easter service at the hospital, 8:45 a. m., with Miss Harriet Lind the guest organist.

The same publication also has a reminder that Mrs. Everett Borg and Mrs. Carl E. Whipple, contralto and accompanist, recently entertained patients in the admissions building with a pleasing musical program.

ST. PAUL'S LEAGUE PLANS SUNRISE SERVICE
The Hi-League of the St. Paul's Lutheran church has planned an Easter Sunrise Service. Weather permitting, Leaguers will leave the church at 6:00 a. m. for Washington Park and transportation will be provided. All young people of the church are cordially invited to attend.

Bob Karlson, president of the League, will present a meditation, "The Joy of Easter"; Tom Nassman will sing "Beautiful Saviour" and Judy Whiteshot will give a poem, "Might".

At 7:30, members will return to the church for a fellowship breakfast.

MINISTERIAL STUDENT CONDUCTING VESPERS
At 7:30 this evening in St. John's Lutheran church in Pleasant township, John Timm, Warren student for the Lutheran ministry, will preach and conduct the Holy Thursday Vesper Service.

Jack, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Timm, East Fifth avenue, was graduated from Warren High School in 1953 and will graduate from Thiel College in Greenville in June. In the fall, he will enter a Lutheran Theological Seminary.

The public is cordially invited to attend the services of St. John's, presently being held in Pleasant Township Grange Hall, Pleasant Drive.

AT ST. JOSEPH'S
It was inadvertently stated in last evening's issue that the Easter Vigil at St. Joseph's church was on Good Friday. It should have been that the Easter Vigil begins on Holy Saturday at 10:30 p. m. with the Vigil Mass at midnight.

Other Easter Masses will be at 6:00, 8:30, 10:00 and 11:30 a. m.

ERROR IN DATE
Incorrectly given in last night's issue was the fish fry dinner projected by Warren Catholic Youth Council. The affair will take place Friday, April 26, from 5:00 to 7:00 p. m., in St. Joseph's School Hall. The public is invited and may secure tickets from any CYC member, adult advisor, or at the door.

AUXILIARY CANCELS
Because of the Holy Week observance, there is no meeting of Warren General Hospital Auxiliary this week. Members are reminded their next sewing session and business meeting will be held Friday, May 3.

CHARLES D. CARLSON

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Carlson of Akley RD 1, was recently elected to office of "usher" in Alpha Gamma Rho Fraternity chapter at Pennsylvania State University.

Chuck, a fourth-semester dairy science major, is also a member of the Penn State lacrosse team and club; an active member of the Dairy Science Club; Agriculture Student Council; and a regular participant in intra-mural sports.

Gathered From The Party Line

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin B. Brown, Bethesda, Md., are in town to spend the Easter weekend with his sister, Mrs. Frank Duffy, and family, Ruhlman street.

Local students back in town for Easter vacation include Davis Gibb, son of Dr. and Mrs. R. S. Gibb of Crescent Park, attending University of Pittsburgh; Stanley Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Johnson of Cedar street, and Robert Swanson, son of Richard Swanson of Oakview, freshmen at Grove City College; Charles Mahood, arriving today from Duquesne University, and Francis Mahood, coming Friday from Carnegie Tech, to be guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Mahood, Laurel street.

Miss Kay Evan left today to fly to New York to spend the holiday period with Miss Beverly Chapman, formerly of Warren.

Mrs. Calvin W. Barvis, 203 Fourth avenue, left this morning for an extended visit with her son, Calvin, in Palmerton, Pa., and with her daughter, Mrs. Jeanne Barvis Lopez, in Oberlin, O.

Mrs. Edna Kyler and son, Dick, traveled by bus to Abington, Pa., on Tuesday and will be accompanied home by Miss Frances Grosch, teaching at that place. She will spend the Easter interim with her mother, Mrs. Fred Grosch, 416 Prospect street.

Enjoying a luncheon visit and reminiscing over college days, while attending the Monday meeting of Rotary Club, were Bishop William Crittenden of Erie and Dick Ross, classmates once upon a time at Lafayette College.

Visiting at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Seely, East Third avenue, are Rae Seely, student at Penn State University, and Mrs. Richard Black and children, David, Jay and Lise. Mr. Black will arrive Friday to join the Easter reunion in the Seely home.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Swanson, of Harrisburg, will arrive tonight to spend Easter at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Linder, 111 Conewango avenue.

Pvt. Richard Hoover, who enlisted in the Marine Corps in November, is home from Camp Lejeune, N. C., to spend a 20-day leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell H. Hoover, Warren RD 1.

A note from Mrs. Claude Hoyer from Palm Harbor, Fla., brings the news that she will be required to return to Mease Hospital in Dunedin for further surgery. Mrs. Hoyer was formerly employed at Warren State Hospital and has many friends in the area.

Mrs. Margaret H. McBride writes from the Methodist Home at Meadville that she has been released from the Infirmary after a three-months' illness, but will be unable to continue her column, "Methodist Home Notes", which has been appearing in the Times-Mirror for the past two years.

State Senator L. E. Chapman has returned from Harrisburg where he spent a busy few days with Chairman Norman Wood of the Appropriation committee, paring down funds in the budget for the various departments. He expects to be back in the capital Monday.

SIREN IN PLACE
The West Side Civil Defense siren has been mounted on the utility pole near Fairchild-Rapp. As soon as wiring is completed, the Saturday noon tests will begin, probably April 27th.

ABOUT TIME
Pennsylvania Railroad and Struthers-Wells are on the verge of repairing the elephant traps which gape between the tracks of their crossings on West Fourth avenue, according to Borough Manager George Geracimos. Pennsylvania Railroad is going to lay new welded rails and ties on their crossings, and Struthers has promised to bring theirs to a uniform level with the street. Work will begin with good weather.

"EASTER CARLIFT"
Clifford Loney, governor of Warren Lodge No. 109, LOOM, today reminded that any person desiring transportation to and from church Sunday morning will be accommodated by calling the Moose Club. Those planning to go to early Sunday services should call no later than midnight Saturday. Other calls will be answered Sunday morning, early The project is in connection with "Operation Easter Carlift" which is being sponsored by 1,800 communities where Moose lodges are located.

GIRLS FLY TO FLORIDA
Twelve Titusville girls, all in their mid-teens, began a house-party Easter vacation today the likes of which that community has never seen before. They left at 6:30 this morning in five cars for the Greater Pittsburgh Airport, to board a plane for Winter Park, Fla. There for ten days they will be guests of one of the girl's grandmother, Mrs. L. C. McKinney, who maintains her home there in the winter. On Sunday, April 28, the party will return by air to Titusville.

rates, he had mentioned before. But there also were new ones: Imposition of user charges, on airlines, for example, for use of federal airway facilities and navigation aids.

Rejection of new river and harbor projects not approved by the Army Board of Engineers and not reviewed by the affected states and all interested parties.

Projection of the costs for future years, and reappraisal of the necessity, before any unbudgeted programs are adopted.

Granting the president authority to veto individual items in appropriation bills. Various presidents have advocated that. Now a president can veto only an entire bill.

Eisenhower noted that the House had called upon him in a special resolution to point out places in his $71,800,000,000 spending budget where substantial cuts could be made.

He said he had a resurvey made of expenditures of every federal agency in a hunt for more items which properly could be reduced. The points outlined in his letter to Rayburn are the result, he said.

But Eisenhower pointed out that there is a difference between the spending budget—actual outlays of cash—and the budget for obligational authority. Much of the spending, he said, is done in one year on the basis of authority granted in previous years' appropriation bills.

Some requests for appropriations, he said, can be postponed without serious damage to the programs involved. Specifically he mentioned:

1. A 500 million dollar reduction in funds for the military aid part of the mutual security program.
2. A 200 million cut for military public works.
3. A 254 million dollar slash for the soil bank program—a cut he already had proposed to Congress.

Record of 163 Cities Will Be Represented in Anniversary All-American Soap Box Derby

Detroit—A record-breaking total of 163 cities in the United States, Alaska, Canada, West Germany and the Philippine Islands will take part this year in the 20th anniversary All-American Soap Box Derby, world famous amateur racing event for boys.

The big line-up of participating cities was announced today by W. G. Power, executive director of the Derby and advertising manager of Chevrolet Motor Division. Chevrolet sponsors the program in co-operation with leading newspapers and other civic and fraternal organizations.

The record field, the added prize of a trip abroad for the World Champion, a special international race and other features mark the 1957 event the biggest in Derby history and a fitting climax to the 20th anniversary celebration, Power said.

The year-long Derby activity will reach a colorful peak Sunday, August 18, when the champions from the 163 sponsoring points race in the All-American at Akron, O., on the specially built Derby Downs track.

Big incentive spurring contestants this year is the two-week tour of Europe to be given the boy who wins at Akron. This is in addition to a total of $15,000 in college scholarships and many valuable merchandise awards and trophies for top finishers.

The trip, arranged in co-operation with the U. S. State Department and General Motors Overseas, will take the World Champion by Pan-American World Airways to England, Ireland, France, West Germany, Belgium and Italy.

Previous high total for Derby cities was the 155 which raced in 1956. Thirty-four new cities have been signed for official local races this year while 128 are holdovers from last year, Power said. There are 96 different newspaper sponsors in addition to a number of radio and television stations, civic, service and fraternal organizations.

The 34 new races will be run in: Amarillo and Dallas, Tex.; Ambridge, Johnstown and Levittown, Pa.; Anchorage, Alaska; Babylon, Cortland, Endicott and Poughkeepsie, N. Y.; Bluefield and Morgantown, W. Va.; Dodge City, Kans.; Ft. Lauderdale and West Palm Beach, Fla.; Grand Junction, Colo.; Grenada, Miss.; Magnolia, Ark.; Columbia and Trenton, Mo.; Mankato, Minn.; Michigan City, Ind.; New Brunswick, N. J.; Phoenix, Ariz.; Portsmouth, Va.; Richmond and Yakima, Wash.; Peoria and Skokie, Ill.; Traverse City, Mich.; St. Matthews, Ky.; Sacramento, Calif.; Springfield, Mass.; and Manila, Philippine Islands.

The Derby, which was originated in 1934, is open to boys 11 to 15 years of age, inclusive, who race gravity-propelled coasting cars of their own build and design.

Boys who win the local Derby eliminations are sent to Akron as champions to race in the All-American. As guests of Chevrolet, they are given a whirlwind week-end of entertainment that is climaxed on race day when they compete in the All-American for top honors and prizes.

Bruce Overbey, All-American general manager, said that plans are being made to pit the champions from Alaska, Canada, West Germany and the Philippines in a special international race this year.

Local races leading up to the Akron finale are scheduled to begin in May and continue to within two weeks of the All-American date, he said.

Traditional Easter Ham To Be Featured In Stores This Week

By The Associated Press
The traditional Easter ham will be featured in many of the nation's supermarkets and neighborhood grocery stores this weekend but the pink pork product will have to share the spotlight with turkey.
A few stores also will feature beef, and some markets in coastal areas will have fish available at special prices for seafood fanciers.

Housewives looking for eggs to color as well as eat will find prices somewhat irregular. Eggs are a penny or two higher a dozen in some areas, lower by the same margin in other areas.
Vegetable counters still are featuring outstanding buys in turnips, carrots, beets, parsnips and potatoes from last fall's storage crops.

As spring comes on across the country, these crops gradually are replaced by fresh produce from nearby fields, augmenting shipments from warmer growing areas. This week spinach from nearby fields is a good buy in some areas, to go along with California asparagus and new cabbage and sweet corn from Florida.
Other good buys are slim-bag carrots, cauliflower, eggplant, onions, peppers and such salad ingredients as chicory, escarole and radishes. Iceberg lettuce from Arizona is more plentiful this week and should be a good buy, too, produce men say.

Broccoli, yellow and green squash and cucumbers are a bit more expensive this week in most places.
Fruit counters still have California naval oranges, as well as several late varieties of Florida oranges and grapefruit, on their good buy list. Albarmarle pippin apples from Virginia bolster supplies of apples from other Eastern and Far Western orchards. Most of the imported melons, grapes, apples and pears are no better than moderate in price.
TODAY is pay day for all who have classified ads.

Public Assistance
Bill Encounters
New Difficulties

Washington (AP)—The Senate Appropriations Committee Wednesday refused to accept a House take-it-or-leave-it proposition on an embattled money bill.
The committee rewrote the House version, which carries funds for old age assistance checks for May and June. Chairman Hayden (D-Ariz.) said he would try to get the measure through the Senate and back to the House quickly. That would turn the tables and put it up to the House to accept the Senate changes.
The bill has been deadlocked since mid-February. Several senators declared on the floor today

Congress should not recess until the bill has been sent to President Eisenhower.
Tied up in the bill is 275 million dollars needed by the states to make the public assistance payments in May and June. The dispute does not concern this amount but centers on other issues.
It was not immediately clear how the House would react.
Chairman Cannon (D-Mo.) of the House Appropriations group had indicated that the resolution passed yesterday was the House's last word on the subject before its planned 10-day recess.

'OUTSTANDING'

Outstanding Young Farmers of 1956, the four men pictured, below, are the final winners from more than 10,000 young farmers nationally nominated for recognition as "outstanding" in the 48 states, Alaska and Hawaii. Some 50 finalists, all in the 21-36 age group, gathered at Durham, N. C., to attend the awards presentation. Now in its third year, the annual program is under co-sponsorship of the U.S. Junior Chamber of Commerce, which has some 900 chapters, and the American Petroleum Institute Committee on Agriculture.

Berts Finish On Ladies Major Top

Ann's gave it the old college try last night in Ladies Major Bowling League rolloff at Penn Alleys but Berts scored a pair of points themselves to finish the league with a 77½ to 42½ score. Ann's were right behind with 76 and 44. Betty Lee finished third with 48½ to 71½ and Marguerites camped in the cellar, 38 and 82.

Match results last night gave Ann's 3, Marguerites 1; Berts 2, Betty Lee 2.

Wightman Cup Matches Scheduled for August

New York (AP) — The annual Wightman Cup matches for women's tennis supremacy between the United States and Britain will be played Aug. 10-11 on the clay courts of the Edgeworth Club in Sewickley, Pa.

This will mark the first time the matches have been played on anything but grass surface and also the first time in this country the event has not been held on the eastern seaboard.

Mrs. William DuPont Jr., chairman of the Wightman Cup committee, made the announcement today.

Five singles and two doubles matches will be played with each match counting one point. The Americans have held the trophy since 1931.

Additional 30 Days for Public Utilities To File

Secretary of Revenue Gerald A. Gleason today announced an additional 30 day extension to public utilities for the filing of their annual Selective Sales and Use Tax returns.

The returns will now be due by midnight, Friday, May 31, 1957.

Secretary Gleason said the extension was granted because final regulations governing the sales tax obligations of public utilities are now being completed.

The new regulations will be in the hands of all utilities before the end of April, Secretary Gleason said.

Fire Department At Corydon Buys Portable Booster

Corydon—The local volunteer fire department has some new equipment in the form of a portable booster pump, ordered three weeks ago, and brought to the fire hall Thursday by Richard Frame. Having a usually well-filled Allegheny River and numerous streams to call upon for supply, the new pump will aid greatly in future fire fighting.

Mrs. Margaret Ruth, Mrs. Helen Stoltz, Mrs. GlenDine LeDow and Mrs. Helen Foogde represented this community at the annual Home-making Day held at the White Way Social Center at Starbrick under the auspices of the Warren County Home Economics Extension Clubs. They report a most enjoyable day, including luncheon and entertainment.

Mrs. Charles Whyte, Mrs. Thomas Kornell and Mrs. Ted Whyte left Friday to visit Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Henderson in Pittsburgh. Mrs. Charles Whyte remaining for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Foogde returned recently from a visit with his parents in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Alec Jarrett have returned after spending some time in Kittanning.

Dicky Whyte, Kinzus, is visiting at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Whyte.

Charles Ruth, employed at York, is visiting his parents, the Samuel Ruths.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Benton are home after a visit with Bradford relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Akers, Warren, were Saturday callers of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Akers.

New Schedule For Youths Enlisting In the Air Force

Niagara Falls Municipal Airport—Department of the Air Force announced recently that young men between 17 and 25 years of age may now enlist in the Air Force Reserves and fulfill all but six months of their military obligation at home. Previously the "Six Month Training" program was open to men in the 17-18½ year old bracket.

Under the announced program, accepted applicants will attend basic training and complete one of the high-grade technical schools offered by the Air Force which is suited to the individual's ambition and ability. Upon completion of this training, the new Air Force Reservist returns to his home and is free to pursue his civilian career while training one weekend each month with his local Air Force Reserve unit.

Courses offered for the six month enlistee include aircraft engine repair, photography, communications, electricity and many others designed not only to benefit the Air Force, but will be a big asset to the trainee when he returns to school or enters the civilian business world.

Following the active duty tours, Western New Yorkers entering into this program will be assigned to the 44th "Bison Wing" at Niagara Falls Municipal Airport which is presently undergoing conversion to a Troop Carrier Wing. Members of the 44th Reserve Wing train one weekend each month, using the latest Air Force equipment. Through this training, six month enlistees and former service personnel alike keep abreast of the changes in equipment and techniques.

Additional information on the Air Force Reserve's two programs now available at Niagara Falls... the six month trainee or prior service enlistment, can be obtained by either calling Niagara Falls 6681, Extension 375 or visiting the Reserve Recruiting office at Niagara Falls Air Force Base.

New Drug With a "Tremendous Potential" for Oral Treatment Of Diabetes Undergoing Tests

By FRANK CAREY
AP Science Reporter
Boston (AP)—A new drug that has "tremendous potential" for the oral treatment of diabetes—IF its safety can definitely be proved—is under test at the New England Deaconess Hospital.

Researchers who have tested it in only 50 patients so far told a reporter today that it has shown tentative promise of being ultimately useful as a means of reducing and in some cases perhaps even eliminating the use of injectable insulin in almost all types of diabetes, including juvenile.

They said studies of the drug are also underway at New York Medical College.

Previous oral drugs under scientific study for treating diabetes, said Dr. Leo P. Krall, have been effective in many middle-aged and elderly diabetics, especially those with milder types of illness, but have not been useful in children, except in very rare instances.

He said the new, still-experimental drug had been tested in patients of various age groups and varying degrees of disease severity and had produced some benefit in most cases—by lowering blood sugar levels, the principal effect required in treating diabetes.

But he declared that while he and his associates are optimistic about the substance, they have their fingers crossed for two reasons:

1. The drug has been under trial for only three months. And he said that while so far there has been no evidence of "toxic reactions"—that is, serious damage from the drug itself—one of the other oral drugs in the diabetic field, after going as much as several years without causing such reactions, ultimately produced them to a degree necessitating its withdrawal from experimental use in the United States.

2. In 40 per cent of the cases, "side-effects" have been caused—including nausea and vomiting. These side effects are not known to be dangerous to the body, but nevertheless they limit a person's tolerance for the drug, he said.

"If the bugs can be worked out as regards side-effects, and assuming that no toxic effects would ultimately develop from long-term use," said Dr. Krall, "the drug would be tremendously useful in the oral treatment of diabetes because of its apparently wide versatility as regards different types of patients."

The drug, called "D. B. I.", differs chemically from previous

NO PENTHOUSE—Paul Sepanik, 10, waves from the "roof garden" of the treetop apartment he and brother Fred, on the lower floor, built in this tree near Lanesboro, Mass. An ill wind blew no good to the amateur engineers; they had to remove a "penthouse" that threatened to blow away.

Low Prices Force Curtailment Of Egg Production

Harrisburg (AP)—Some Pennsylvania poultry farmers have been forced to curtail operations because of "continued low prices" received on eggs and poultry meats, the State Agriculture Department reported today in reporting results of a survey by the Pennsylvania Crop Reporting Service.

Other findings:

"The number of layers during March at 17.7 million was down seasonally from February and slightly below March 1956. But a high rate of lay—favored by relatively mild weather—more than offset the drop in number of layers and egg output totaled 334 million for the month. This was about 3 per cent above a year earlier and the highest monthly production in years.

"Production of eggs of Pennsylvania farms for the first three months of this year totals 956 million or 1 per cent above the 944 million for the same period in 1956.

"Prices received by farmers for eggs at mid-March averaged 36 cents per dozen, a decline of 3 cents from a month previous and a 9-cent drop from March 15, 1956.

ANOTHER FINE PRODUCT OF STANDARD BRANDS INC.

It was the lowest mid-month average price since June 1950. Live-weight farm chicken at 17 cents per pound was up a half cent from mid-February but 6.5 cents below a year earlier. Broiler prices for March 15 averaged 21 cents, 1 cent above a month earlier but 2.5 cents below March 15 last year and 8.5 cents below the same date two years ago. Turkey prices at 34 cents held to the low level of mid-February and fell a nickel short of March 15, 1956".

Warren YMCA To Be Host To District Meeting To Be Held Next Week, April 26, 27 and 28

An exciting, event-packed three days is in store for all boys from Warren and western Pennsylvania who attend the YMCA Older Boys' Conference, scheduled for next week on April 26-27-28 at Warren.

The conference will begin at 2:00 p. m. Friday with registration and accommodation assignments in the YMCA lobby. Boys will be guests of individual Warren families and a large map of Warren will be displayed in the lobby to assist boys in finding their hosts' homes.

There will be games of chess, checkers, ping pong, pool and scrabble, plus displays and bulletin boards to entertain the boys until the first assembly at four o'clock. Following the assembly, there will be a period of free time.

Following is a round-up of events scheduled for the three day period: Friday evening April 26—Keynote banquet at the YWCA with Larman Sherwood of New York City, delivering the keynote address; Friday night—a special program dance on the "Rodeo Round-up" theme will be held at the youth canteen, when a five act floor show will be presented in addition to a Paul Jones, spot dances, door award and many other unusual dances.

Saturday morning, April 27—a devotional program will be held at First Methodist church followed by discussion groups in the church parlors and classrooms on the following topics—Threat of War—Crisis in Morals—What to Expect in College—What Makes Maturity? Saturday noon—lunch at YWCA cafeteria followed by address by Wayne McDonald, YMCA World Service Secretary of New York City. Saturday afternoon—free time and planned recreation; guided tour of new Sylvania plant; chess, checkers, pool, ping pong tournaments at YMCA gym and highlight of afternoon, special fish chase in YMCA pool.

Saturday evening—main banquet at YWCA; singing, orchestra, dinner music, special trumpet solo, skit by Warren Hi-Y Club. Presentation of honored guests, crowning of World Service Queen by Miss Warren County of 1956, Miss Betty Ann Pasquino. Awarding of prizes and awards; surprise award; main address by Charles Soleau, of Pittsburgh. Saturday night—impromptu recreation—recreation party at Stanley Warner Theatre to view "The Shrinkin' Man", courtesy of George Sarvis; also dancing at Youth Canteen.

Sunday afternoon, April 28—farewell party at 2:30, YMCA parking lot or boys' department; exchange of addresses; music by band; goodbye favors, etc.

Special Features of Conference—"Mystery Man" will circulate and help people become acquainted; award for group coming longest distance; award for largest group in attendance; "Wonder bar", all sorts of interesting concessions; cartoon festival, display of best cartoons from current magazines.

There are many tree farms in the United States, privately owned tracts where trees produce continuous timber crops with the aid of expert forest management.

DASH DOT DASH DOT!

It's radio's voice, click of telegraph, wireless sparks, or—your doorbell, to tell you it's "C-Day" in our town. It's coming soon, when your neighbors, our volunteers, will go from house to house, asking all of you to join the fight against cancer. They'll ring your doorbell in Morse Code, the DASH-DOT-DASH-DOT, which means "C": "C" for Conquer "C" for Cancer.

The ringing call for help summons you. So when your bell rings, answer it!

Tribute to Nell Swick

(Editor's Note: Among honors accorded Nell Swick at the annual Home Street Teachers' banquet in Pleasant township fire hall was following poem composed by Nina Haight):

We have gathered here this evening
To honor one, held dear,
To tell you something of her past;
Things she did in yester-year.

She was a beautiful little baby,
Sweet as babies run;
But she had one regular habit,
She always sucked her thumb.

She, and her cousin, Ethel,
Were Tomboys through and through;
Thought anything a boy did—
They could surely do.

One day, they climbed into a barn,
To frolic in the hay,
But Nellie got herself hung up—
Neighbors had to carry her away.

Canoe rides, slumber parties,
Made girlhood so sublime;
Wherever Nellie ventured,
She had a wonderful time.

Her family moved from Kane to Warren,
And she went to Warren High;
She was active in her class affairs
Nothing passed her by.

She was called a brilliant girl,
Could argue in any theme—
But to teach other youngsters,
Was part of Nellie's dream.

Her first school was Pleasant township,
She walked miles to her school;
Teaching Reading, Writing, Arithmetic,
Most of all—The Golden Rule.

But fate has a way of changing things,
A man comes into view;
One who waited every day for her
To prove his love was true.

They took a trip to Franklin,
And there, they tied the knot;
So Nellie chose a new career,
But school she never forgot.

One thing, you folks might not know,
(And this is on the side)
She got a medal for speeding once,
Sliding down the slippery slide.

She loves to see new places,
But once away from here—
She becomes a different person;
In daring garb appears.

She has travelled over to England,
And Scotland, too, we know;
She loved the fun of seeing things
And being on the go.

But this must end our reminiscing,
Of things past and gone;
But to her, Fondest recollections
Of memories that linger on.

Her life is one of dedication

To the teaching of our young;
If one of them grew famous—
She felt her battle won.

She has been at Home Street School
For thirteen years or more,
And saw many future leaders
Pass in and out the door.

Now, she feels her job completed
She has earned a perfect rest;
For showing youngsters how to grow,
And laugh and love and live.

May your days be full of happiness,
And your joys be so complete;
We know you will be happy,
Helping those with whom you meet.

Home Street School is going to miss you,
Seeing you fit about;
But remember that we love you
And the Welcome mat is always out.

New Multi-Million Dollar Project Is Started By Penelec

Another major contribution to the economy of Central Pennsylvania was foreshadowed when Pennsylvania Electric Company broke ground for a multi-million dollar addition to its Shawville Generating Station, located near Clearfield along the West Branch of the Susquehanna River.

Presiding at the groundbreaking Walter C. Sontum, Penelec vice president, said work will begin immediately on the construction of a 185,000-kilowatt addition, to cost $25,000,000 which will make Shawville one of the largest and most efficient power-producing installations in this part of the country. Its present capacity is 276,000 kilowatts.

"When this new addition goes into operation early in 1959, customers throughout the Central area and the entire Penelec system will have at their disposal a great new source of power to meet their increasing electrical needs," Sontum said. The utility executive pointed out that the greater capacity at Shawville will be an economic asset to the Central Pennsylvania area served by Penelec in that it will offer a virtually unlimited supply of electricity for industrial and other economic expansion. In addition, the new unit will have a direct favorable effect upon the region's economy by greatly increasing Penelec's purchases of coal from nearby mining operations.

Shawville's location in one of the state's great coal producing regions, where vast supplies of the type of coal needed for the efficient production of electricity are near at hand, was a major factor in the station's selection for expansion, Sontum said.

As construction of the Shawville addition begins, Penelec will be completing a similar addition to its Seward Generating Station near Johnstown. The initial operation of a new 137,500-kilowatt unit is scheduled there this week. The Seward addition will make that station the largest in the Penelec system, with a capacity of 295,500 kilowatts, until the Shawville addition is completed and the latter resumes its leadership among company stations with a capacity of more than 460,000 kilowatts. With both additions operating, Penelec will have a total of generating capacity of 1,175,000 kilowatts—more than triple that of ten years ago.

Both of these stations as well as Penelec's other nine steam stations and five hydroelectric installations, send power into a 1,478-mile transmission network which serves 387,500 customers in western, south-central and northern Pennsylvania.

Light refreshment

FASHION has a taste for the slim, modern waist—and so does Pepsi-Cola. Today's Pepsi—the modern, light refreshment—is reduced in calories. Never heavy, never too sweet! This holiday weekend, you, your family and friends will want to refresh without filling. Better pick up a couple of cartons for all those people who'll be saying, "Pepsi, please!"

Many Residents of Scranton Are Shaken To Find City in Glare of the Probe Spotlight

Scranton (AP)—Many of Scranton's 124,000 people obviously were shaken to find their city in the unrelenting glare of a Senate searchlight.

That searchlight is poking around in Washington for the reasons that strong in-stuff played a big part in labor activities here. To many Scrantonians these are troubling times.

A summing up of public opinion this tough moment runs along these lines:

We're deep-down Americans, living in a town that's had its ups and downs, but it's not lucked by them. We're busy trying to solve our problems, and we don't think of leniency as a solution."

Scranton, in northeastern Pennsylvania, is not precisely an average city of its population class, yet is not far off center.

In its earlier days, it relied heavily upon iron and steel. But steel was considered to be of fairly low grade, and parcel by parcel the industry moved out to richer fields of Minnesota.

Hard coal took over from steel. It had a better time of it, until ever wider use of other fuels heavily into the anthracite. Up against that kind of competition, the hard coal people upon their ingenuity to develop other uses for their product. So, the punch still could be felt, and in Washington's official Scranton was lumped into "de-

Science Developing Medicine to Offset X-Ray Exposures

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE
AP Science Reporter

Chicago (AP)—Medicines taken either before or after H-bomb attacks show promise of saving lives from deadly radiation, scientists said today.

Such medicines now are saving animals from otherwise fatal doses of X-rays. The animals include monkeys, a close relative of man.

The before-attack treatment could be easy-to-get pills.

The after-attack treatment could be injections of bone marrow. It might even be animal bone marrow, perhaps someday stocked in marrow banks.

Animal experiments giving the basis for some protective medicines were described today to the Federation of American Societies for Experimental Biology.

Abundant chemicals known as sulfhydryl compounds are known to save mice from exposure to X-rays which normally would kill all of them. One such chemical is Cysteine, a building block of proteins. These chemicals work only if taken before exposure to radiation.

Drugs of this class also protect monkeys, a much higher form of life, said a new report by Dr. B. G. Crouch and Dr. Richard H. Overman of the University of Tennessee College of Medicine, Memphis.

Monkeys fed one of these drugs and then exposed to killing amounts to X-rays are still alive six months later, and are apparently normal, they said.

Training Sessions For Crusaders Are Planned On Monday

Edgar Pendleton, chairman of Warren Borough for the American Cancer Society's House-to-House Crusade, wishes to remind the ladies who expect to participate in the Fund Drive on April 23 of the Training Sessions which will be held in the YWCA on Monday, April 22 at two o'clock in the afternoon, and at 7:30 in the evening.

It is Mr. Pendleton's desire that all workers attend one of these sessions to acquaint themselves with the educational aspects of the Crusade as well as the details of the drive.

Mrs. Charles Chew, regional representative from Harrisburg Headquarters, will be on hand at both meetings to speak to the groups, as well as Mr. Wright, campaign chairman for the county, Frank Perrin, co-chairman, Miss Mina Rieder, executive secretary of the Warren County Unit, and Miss Margaret Wright, publicity chairman for the Crusade.

These meetings are being conducted especially for the Warren Borough workers, but all workers in the county who have been unable to attend the area meetings, and others for whom no meetings have been held are urged to attend either afternoon or evening.

Mr. Wright and Mr. Pendleton earnestly hope for a full turnout of crusaders next Monday so that Warren County may have a successful crusade and that our goal of $11,000 will be attained.

Crusade Work Kits which the solicitors must have for the House-to-House canvass will be distributed at the meetings by the various Captains and their contents will be explained.

CORYDON

Corydon—Mrs. Al Marcinek and twin sons, of Cleveland, O., are spending a week with her mother, Mrs. G. A. Prue, and have been visitors in both Bradford and Warren.

Mrs. Richard Ruth, Mrs. Mary Davis, Mrs. Mae Marsh and Tress Marsh were Monday Warren visitors.

Mrs. A. M. Kraft has arrived home after spending the winter in Newfane and Tonawanda. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ammerman accompanied her home.

Mr. and Mrs. James Kane-Corydon-Kinzua road, have returned home after spending the winter in Florida.

Mrs. Gladys Lechner, Onoville, N. Y., was listed Monday as a patient in Warren General Hospital.

Jack Stranburg is reported getting along nicely after a siege of scarlet fever.

Assemblyman Reporting

Newsletter for the Warren Times-Mirror prepared by Assemblyman Allen M. Gibson, assistant floor leader, House of Representatives.

For the next several weeks your common sense approach to budgetary matters will be reading a good deal about matters is so unusual (state legislature usually appropriate more, appropriations which will pay the not less, than budget requests) cost of state government for the next two years.

The Republican leadership in Harrisburg is determined to do two things, first to hold the line on taxes, and second, to hold the line on spending.

Both policies are difficult to carry out and the second requires more courage than the average legislative majority is able to muster. I believe we have the courage to hold the line on state spending, and to cut the Leader budget to conform with our estimated tax intake for the coming biennium.

We are going to operate like a sensible family. We will fit our spending to our income. This com-holding hearings on budget requests of the various departments of the state government. They are analyzing the budget, item by item, to determine what is essential and what is superfluous in the departmental requests for money.

Let me give you an example of what they are looking into:

The Health Department is asking an increase of 11 million dollars for the next two years. Many of the items proposed are of doubtful merit, and there is evidence of waste and duplication of facilities.

For example, the Health Department operates a TB hospital in Philadelphia with a bed capacity of 180 at a cost of $1,730,000, while at Hamburg, less than 50 miles away there is a TB sanitarium with 200 empty beds.

The cost per day at Philadelphia will run $20 and at Hamburg about $11 a day. By combining the two operations, more than $1,000,000 can be saved, in addition to capital expenditures which will be necessary to modernize the Philadelphia sanitarium.

Another Health Department

item requests $800,000 for a hospital in Pittsburgh for narcotic addicts and alcoholics. This is certainly not needed, because there is an ably run free hospital for dope addicts at Lexington, Kentucky, run by the federal government, where there is plenty of space. Facilities are now in operation there for the treatment of alcoholics.

There are many other items in the same category in this Health Department budget, all well-meaning perhaps, but not absolutely essential. Some of them would provide services which the public is not requesting, but which Health Department propagandists are trying to sell to the public at their own expense.

Let me give you another example of how state expenditures keep mushrooming unless we resist pressures on the Legislature.

In 1949 the General Assembly passed the Public School Code, in which there was provision for free extension courses for adults taught in the public schools in the evening. The law was broadly written to

DAIMLER-BENZ

CURTISS-WRIGHT

Studebaker-Packard

These three companies employing 107,000 people, with sales in 1956 totaling one billion, two hundred sixty-six million dollars, announce the signing of agreements providing for a fully-integrated program of engineering, production, sales and service of automotive vehicles; automotive, marine and industrial gasoline and diesel engines; and diesel and gasoline fuel injection systems. All of these companies have been associated for years with quality, precision manufacture and high-performance products.

Pursuant to these agreements, Daimler-Benz and Curtiss-Wright have formed an American company—Curtiss-Wright and Mercedes-Benz, Inc.—to provide for the development and sale of Daimler-Benz products in the United States, Canada, Mexico and Cuba.

Studebaker-Packard Corporation in signing the agreements will now make available to its dealers a full line of domestic and imported sports cars, convertibles, sedans and station wagons—ranging in price from under $2,000 up to $13,000—gasoline and diesel powered trucks and all-wheel drive utility vehicles.

Mercedes-Benz cars and distinctive Mercedes-Benz features—such as fine coachwork, swing axles and transmissions—will be exclusive to Studebaker-Packard.

The Utica-Bend Division of Curtiss-Wright Corporation, now building diesel engines for the U. S. Navy, will import and manufacture Mercedes-Benz diesel engines and diesel and gasoline engine fuel injection systems under the agreements. The engines will range from a 4-cylinder model of 25 h.p. to a supercharged 8-cylinder model of 600 h.p.

Further agreements are being negotiated between Daimler-Benz and Curtiss-Wright Corporation for the interchange of rights for the manufacture of aircraft products.

Brokenstraw Board Adopts Budget For The 1957-58 Term include a wide variety of subjects both practical and recreational.

All of us will agree that free night courses in English for the foreign born, for example, are thoroughly worth while. But should the state pay for courses in ballet dancing, oil painting, choral singing, ceramics or swimming? These are only a few of the recreational subjects being taught in adult education programs in Pennsylvania.

The amount of money subsidized by the state for recreational courses last year was $1,191,610 41, but for regular subjects, such as English, math, history, only $474,171 41. Over twice as many teachers and 10 times as many pupils are taking recreational courses as are enrolled in regular academic classes.

I believe that courses in oil painting and ballet dancing are luxury items, as far as the state budget is concerned, but when we consider their expendable, thousands of people will think we are cruel. They want their free courses. Actually, these courses are not free, but are paid through a combination of state and local taxes. Multiply this example a hundred fold, or a thousand fold, and you will be able to imagine the problems our Appropriations committee is faced with when it seeks to hold the line on spending.

Rules Outlined For Rental of Vacation Cabins in the State

Harrisburg (P) — Rental of state park vacation cabin is being restricted to one week for a family this season, Secretary of Forests and Waters Maurice K. Goddard has reported.

Goddard also told a television panel (WPTA — Capitol Correspondents) that the state's 171 public park cabins already were rented for the week of July 4. He said there were a few vacancies for other times in the vacation season.

Rental of the cabins previously has been restricted to two weeks. Asked about the prospects of installation of diving docks at Fuller and Laurel Lakes in Cumberland County, Goddard said:

"We have discouraged diving docks because few people can dive well and they take up space that could be put to greater advantage for a greater number of people."

Goddard said the state was considering a 50-cent admission fee probably by automobile for the parks.

"A recent survey in the Clearfield area showed that 87 per cent would not object," he said.

DRAMATIC DAYS OF THE EASTER STORY

On Good Friday, unhappy Pilate sat in judgment on Jesus. He was troubled at the trumped-up demands for the Saviour's crucifixion. "I find in him no fault at all," he told the accusers. But, seeking to appease the priests, he gave in and turned Jesus over to the executioners.

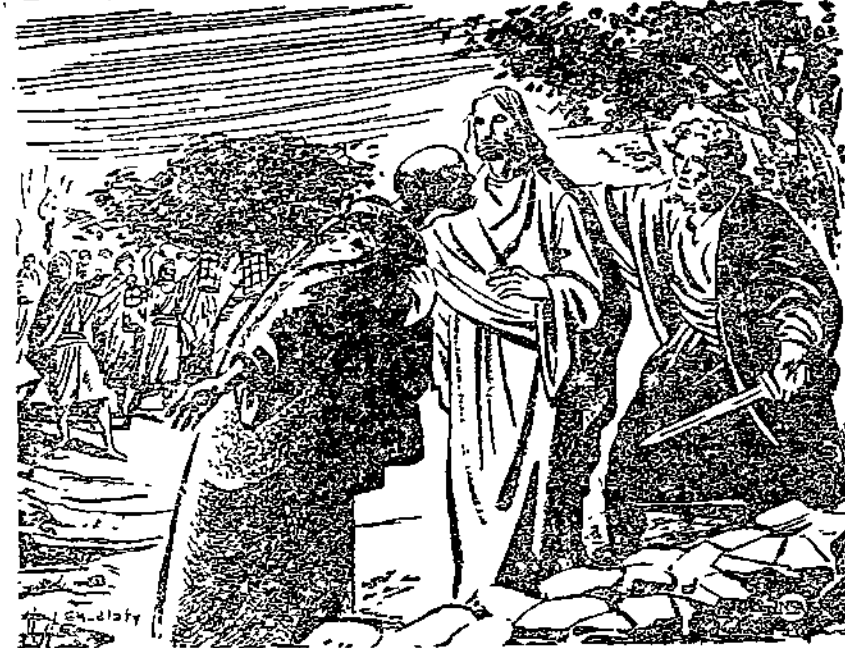

And so Jesus died on the cross, between two thieves crucified with him. And Joseph, the rich disciple from Arimathea, comforted Mary and the other grieving women. Jesus was laid to rest in Joseph's own sepulchre, newly hewn from stone. A great rock was rolled up to seal the entrance.

Toward dawn of the first day of the week the Marys came to the sepulchre. It was empty. But an Angel of the Lord, who had descended from heaven, greeted them, saying, "He is not here; for he is risen, as he said." Thus came to pass the eternal miracle of Easter.

"Then one of the twelve, called Judas Iscariot, went unto the chief priests. And said unto them, what will you give me and I will deliver him unto you?" This sketch depicts Judas, right, bargaining with the priests for the betrayal of Jesus on the day that has become known as "Spy Wednesday."

Judas approaches Jesus to identify him for the Roman soldiers entering the garden of Gethsemane. "And he that was called Judas, one of the twelve, drew near Jesus to kiss him. But Jesus said unto him, Judas, betrayest thou the Son of man with a kiss?" This was the night after the Last Supper.

It was then, after his capture, that Peter denied Jesus. "And as Peter was beneath in the palace, there cometh one of the maids of the high priest: And when she saw Peter . . . said: And thou also wast with Jesus of Nazareth. But he denied, saying, I know not, neither understand I what thou sayest."

Once-Deserted Town Is Liquor Oasis in Dry Illinois County

Muddy, Ill. (P) — This once-deserted mining town, revived through the efforts of a former general store and night club owner who bought almost the entire town, now is a liquor oasis in a dry southern Illinois county.

Its citizens voted 56-2 yesterday to legalize the sale of liquor in Marion in an adjoining county for the nearest legal drink.

But Molnarolo and his son John Jr. apparently believe a liquor store would be just as lucrative—and perhaps arouse less opposition from vocal dry forces in the area.

"The Village Council already has passed an ordinance restricting sales to packaged liquor," John Jr. said last night.

"We expect to open the store after the 30-day state waiting period, barring legal complications."

"They won't have any local competition. The council limited the number of liquor licenses to one and restricted sales to a zone occupied by a building the Molnarolos now rent out for special occasions.

The elder Molnarolo, as village president, also becomes liquor commissioner under state law. By the way, he and the six-man council all won re-election without opposition yesterday.

New Office Building for Future Presidents Favored

Washington (P)—President Eisenhower favors expanding the White House grounds for construction of a new office building for future presidents.

Eisenhower's ideas along these lines may touch off controversy. One always seems to boil up whenever anyone suggests physical changes around the White House.

The President's thoughts on the matter were outlined yesterday by his press secretary, James C. Hagerty, who emphasized they still are tentative.

The President's office is in what is known as the west executive wing, situated just west of the mansion proper and its living quarters. Despite several interior renovations over the years, the wing still is too small to house the President's entire staff.

The overflow is accommodated in the old State-War-Navy building, across the street.

139 Pints Collected by Bloodmobile Wednesday

What was considered another successful visit for the Red Cross Bloodmobile at the Chapter House in Warren Wednesday, a total of 139 pints were donated, mostly by employees of the Struthers Wells Corp., and drop-ins.

The schedule for the unit in this area calls for it to be in Youngsville Wednesday, May 8th; at the Warren State Hospital June 4, and again back at the Chapter House in Warren on Wednesday, June 26th.

The local committee in charge was well pleased with the response during yesterday's visit, although a goal of 168 pints had been set.

WESTMORELAND JUDGE DIES

Greensburg (P)—Judge George H. McWherter, 68, a member of the Westmoreland County Common Pleas Court since 1941, died yesterday following a long illness.

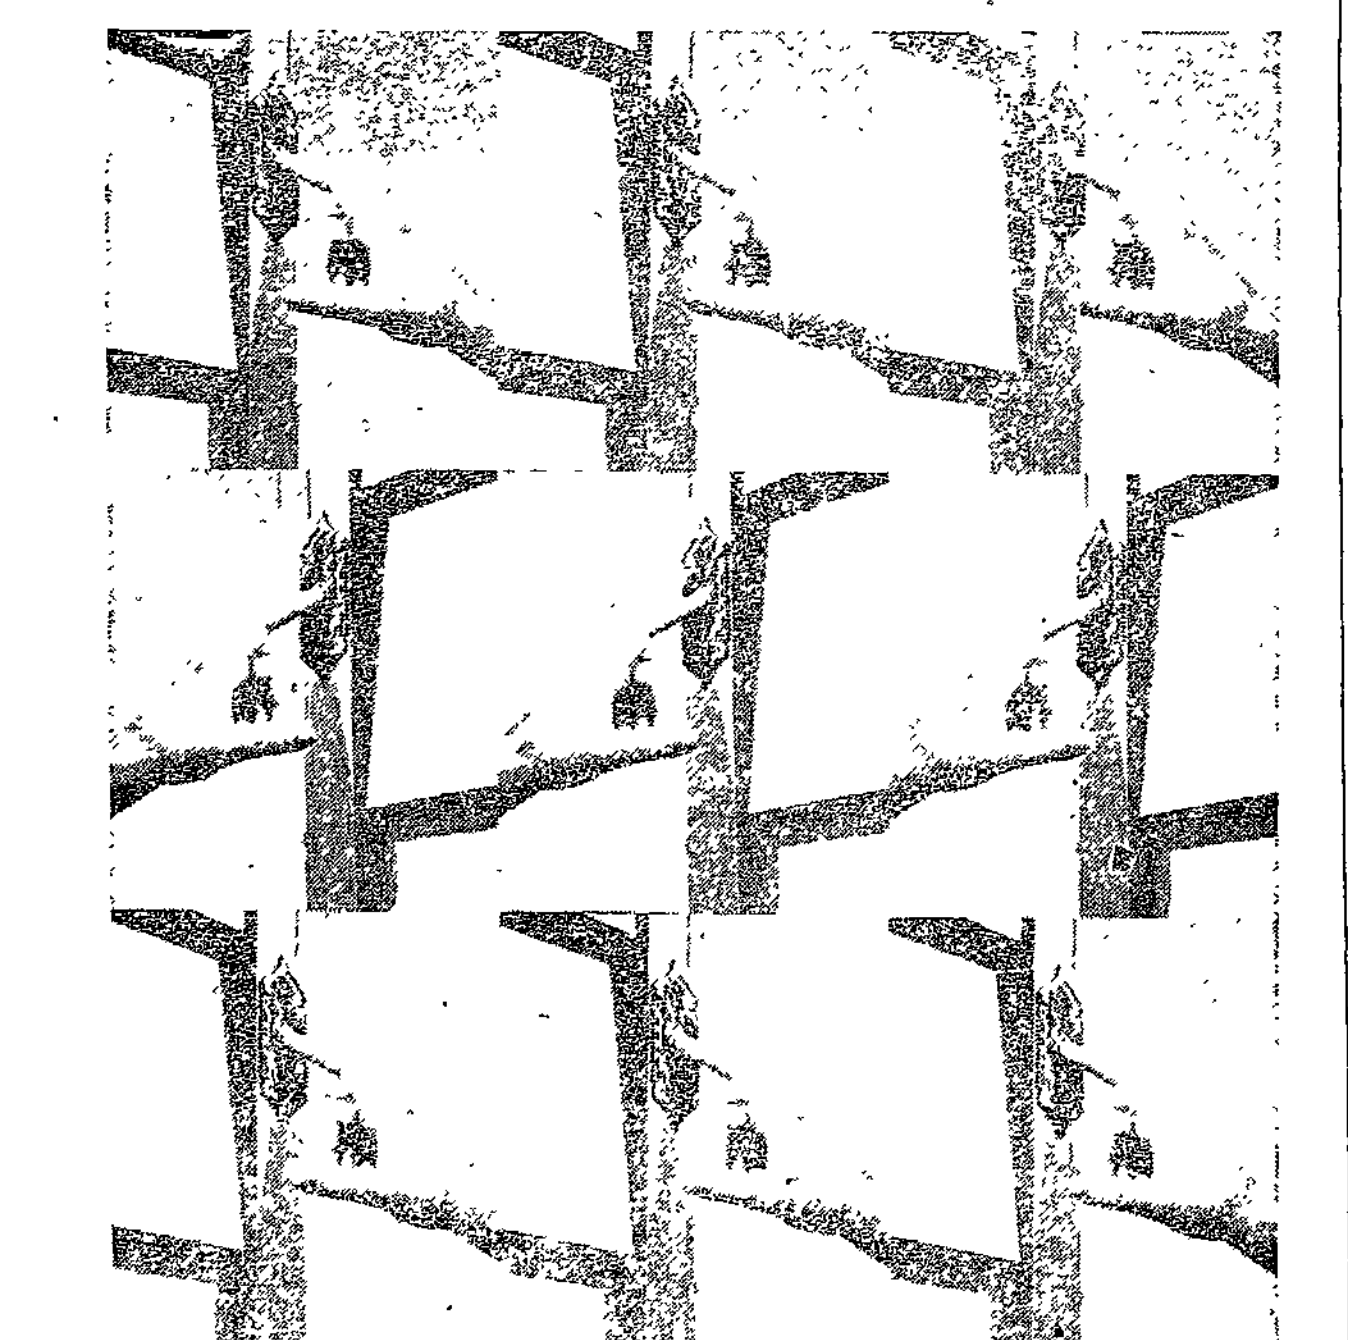

Judge McWherter, a Democrat, was serving his second 10-year term on the bench. He was first elected in 1951. He was long active in Democratic Party affairs, having been a state committeeman for 22 years. He once served as county chairman.

JOINT SERVICE

First Baptist and Calvary Baptist churches will hold a joint baptismal and communion service in the sanctuary of First Baptist church at 7:30 this evening. The public is welcome.

the bells are ringing

All over town, the bells will be ringing on "C-Day." That's the day your neighbor, an American Cancer Society volunteer, will tap out a DASH-DOT-DASH-OT on your doorbell. That's Morse Code for the letter "C" . . . "C" for Conquer — "C" for Cancer. It's a summons to you to get in the fight against cancer, number two killer in the nation.

Fight cancer with a checkup. A physical examination every year is your best living insurance against cancer.

Fight cancer with a check. Your dollars are needed to finance research, education, and service to the stricken.

Remember — when you give to the American Cancer Society, you are making an investment that pays off in the saving of human lives.

RAINFALL IS LIGHT

By The Associated Press

There were widespread areas of precipitation across the nation again today as April's showery weather showed no letup. Rainfall in most of the country was light and temperatures were generally mild.

IRISH SHAMROCK

According to legend, St. Patrick planted the little shamrock in Ireland because its three small leaves represented the Holy Trinity.

Your Electric Appliances Deserve Special Care

BY KAY SHERWOOD
NEA Staff Writer

HIGH on the preferred list of wedding gifts are the small electric cooking appliances the bride will appreciate more each time she uses them.

Instead of trial-and-error experiments in brewing coffee, for example, she can plug in the automatic coffee maker and know she'll serve her proud husband a uniformly good cup every time. Even if she's a novice cook, thermostatically controlled saucepans, skillets, griddles and the like promise more successes and fewer scorched failures. Because they are portable, she can cook where she pleases and pack them with little trouble if she moves.

Smart bride treats new electric cooking appliances with the care they deserve. Automatic coffee maker gets interior cleansing with baking-soda solution. Panel built in at back of pink, unglazed-lye counter has outlets, clock and timer to facilitate use of appliances.

BUT IF these cooking wonders are to deliver the length of service and the results they are intended to, the bride must give them reasonable care.

It would seem obviously important to read the manufacturer's instruction book packed with the appliance. But this is often blithely overlooked, I'm told by repairmen.

If you lose the instruction book in the flurry of opening wedding presents, get another one. Look up the guarantee and register card if there is one. Should defects develop you can save time and money by having the appliance properly registered, by knowing what is guaranteed and for how long.

In day-to-day care, one of the most important rules is always to disconnect any electric utensil before cleaning it. Don't leave it connected when it's not in use.

Not to read the manufacturer's specific recommendations for the care of his appliances can be ruinous. Some automatic skillets, for example, can be completely immersed in water for washing; others would be injured by this procedure.

Don't scrape pans with a sharp knife to remove food particles. Use steel wool soap pads or cleanser on a cloth to scour aluminum skillets and saucepans. A stiff-bristled brush helps remove crumbs from waffle grids.

JINX OF the automatic coffee pot is the oily residue that can lead to off flavors. To avoid it, don't let coffee stand all day in the pot. Do wash and clean the pot regularly and thoroughly.

ten highly recommended to keep the interiors of automatic pots fresh and clean. Baking soda solution is another recommended cleanser.

If you have an automatic percolator, pay special attention to the well in the bottom of the pot — if this becomes clogged it can affect the operation of the heating element. Clean this periodically with a percolator brush or a cotton swab. Leave the coffee pot uncapped overnight for a thorough airing.

Chrome-finished exteriors will shine more brightly if polished now and then with metal polish. Store your electric appliances carefully. Don't pile other pans on top of them. Don't store them in the oven; you might forget them and over heat could soften or melt plastic handles.

ELECTRICAL CORDS are not always interchangeable. Either store the cord with its appliance or label it and store separately. Kitchen cabinets with adjustable sliding trays are well suited to the storage of these heavy utensils.

If you find plug-in utensils are taking over most of the cooking operations, you might want to invest in an outlet panel. There are some available which combine electrical outlets, clock and timer in one neat built-in box.
